RESCUED BY 'ANGEL'

Waitress Says Man Held Her A Captive

A Sausalito cocktail waitress was rescued yesterday after being held captive a harrowing two days in her hillside apartment.

Doris Reine Bonoyer, 29, of 5 Rodeo Avenue, said today that when her friend, Beverly Black, knocked at her apartment door just before noon, "she was like a guardian angel walking through the door."

Miss Bonoyer's lanky six-foot six-inch captor, Robert Carlton Browne, 24, of 75 Tamal Vista, Apt. 735, Corte Madera, was trapped by police by a stake-out near the apartment.

Browne, an unempoyed carpenter, was booked in county jail on charges of strong-arm robbery and assault with intent to commit rape. His bail was set at $5,500 and he was to appear this afternoon in municipal court.

Miss Bonoyer related this story to police:

"At about 1 p.m. Tuesday, I walked out of my apartment to empty the garbage and left my door open. When I returned Browne was inside.

"He had beaten me up in the past and threatened my life because he did not want me to go out with anybody but him."

She said he threatened her and told her he would kill her this time and that he didn't care what happened to him. "I was very scared," said Miss Bonoyer.

Miss Bonoyer said Browne went through her belongings looking for money and valuables and, on leaving, took $25 in currency from a bedroom dresser drawer.

She said Browne took her for a ride in Napa County in his car and, while walking to the car, he held a kitchen knife pointed at her.

"He locked me in the car and told me that if I screamed or yelled at anyone he would cut me up in little pieces and put me down the garbage disposal," she reported.

Yesterday morning, she continued, she tried to get to the balcony without his noticing, so she could arouse help. "He saw what I was trying to do and grabbed me and threw me to the floor and put a pillow over my face so that I could not breathe.

"Just before noon my friend, Beverly, knocked at the door. I was in the bedroom and pretending that I was incoherent. Browne answered the door and told Beverly I was sick. Beverly called to me and I answered her. When Beverly came into the bedroom Browne left the apartment and we called police immediately."

Police received the call at 12:10 p.m.

Showers Fall; More Forecast

Spring-like showers dumped up to half an inch of rain on Marin County overnight, and the weatherman predicted more scattered showers—and perhaps even a thunderstorm — tonight and tomorrow.

Small craft warnings are flying along the coast because of possible 35-knot winds in rain squalls.

Mill Valley recorded the most rainfall overnight, half an inch. San Rafael had .48, Tamalpais Valley .47, Larkspur .43, Sausalito .42, Santa Venetia .38 and Novato .20 of an inch by midmorning.

Mount Tamalpais residents said the night-time rains were sedate, with no lightning nor unusual winds.

As We Left Off In Last Chapter...

More clues and helpful hints were added today to the mystery of Mill Valley's proud prowler, the wandering peacock.

Yesterday, if you recall, the bird was tentatively identified by Robin Taylor of Sausalito as one of his Christmas gifts. Taylor advised that birds can be captured only at night while you shine a light in their eyes.

Today, however, Mrs. Richard Heimann of Washington Park Avenue, Muir Wood Park, challenged Taylor's story.

"I thought everyone knew the peafowl belonged to the Tourist Club," Mrs. Heimann said.

The Tourist Club is an organization of hikers with a clubhouse on Ridge Avenue. A man in Lodi gave a peacock and a peahen to the club two weeks ago, Mrs. Heimann said.

Mrs. Heimann, a member of the club, said it was hoped the birds would stay near the clubhouse if turned loose, but they soon wandered off.

"Many people have seen them and reported them to us," Mrs. Heimann said.

The birds did not come to official attention until Tuesday when Mrs. Marjorie Joy Welland of 44 Madera Way, Mill Valley, called police to say that a peacock sitting on the fence outside her bedroom window had disturbed her early morning sleep.

Taylor heard about this report and concluded the peacock might be Appropriate Passion. He received a peacock and hen for Christmas, calling the cock Appropriate Passion and the hen Delicious Desiring. The names stuck, but the birds did not.

Mrs. Heimann also shattered Taylor's advice on catching peacocks by shining a light in their eyes.

"They know about that," Mrs. Heimann said. "As soon as it gets dark they fly into trees and you can't get near them."

Taylor said you could not catch peacocks in the daytime because they are not impressed by flashlight beams in the light of day.

There is a long-standing story, however, the peacocks, being vain can be captured by a full (peacock) length mirror.

They begin looking at themselves in the mirror and become fascinated. Armed with a mirror, capture is said to be a simple thing.

MICHELLE NITE
Swimming pool victim

Baby, 15 Months, Drowns

Michelle Robin Nite, 15-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Nite of Santa Venetia, drowned yesterday in the family swimming pool.

The little girl managed to open a back door at the home at 17 Washington Street, and fell into the shallow end of the family pool at about 12:30 p.m., according to Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley. The child's mother, Arminda, was ill in bed and her stepsister, Teresa Rutherford, 14, was asleep at the time, Bradley said.

The fatal pool was securely fenced to prevent outsiders from straying into it—but there was no fence between the rear of the house and the pool.

Michelle's body was discovered at 1:30 p.m. by her uncle, Anthony J. Ferretti of San Francisco and grandfather Antonio Ferretti of 7 Roosevelt Avenue, Santa Venetia.

The younger Ferretti jumped into the pool, pulled out the little girl and attempted to revive her until firemen arrived with a resuscitator. The child was rushed to Marin General Hospital, but was pronounced dead on arrival at 1:50 p.m., Bradley said.

The child's father operates a building maintenance service.

She is also survived by a sister, Gloria, 14, and two grandmothers, Mrs. Maude Ferretti of San Francisco and Mrs. Beatrice Allumpaugh of Santa Rosa.

Michelle was born in San Francisco.

Funeral will be held at 11:30 a.m. Monday in the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael. Friends may call at the funeral chapel after noon tomorrow.

Marin County was the scene of three swimming pool drownings in 1964. On July 15, a 13-month-old girl died in her grandparents' pool when she slipped away from a babysitter in San Rafael. A 14-year-old San Francisco boy drowned in a Novato home pool July 24, and a 4-year-old San Francisco boy drowned in the pool at relatives' San Anselmo home Sept. 17.

The county recorded one pool drowning—involving an adult at a party—in 1963, and four—all children—in 1962. There has been at least one swimming pool death annually for the last eight years.

Russ Refuse To Circulate Viet Report

LONDON (UPI) — Russia refused to circulate a controversial report from the International Control Commission (ICC) on Viet Nam to members of the Geneva conference which settled the Indochina war, the Foreign Office announced today. As a result, Britain will make known the contents on its own.

The ICC, composed of India, Poland and Canada, reported on Feb. 13 about recent events in Viet Nam to the U.S.S.R. and Britain, who are co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference.

Details of the report have not yet been publicly disclosed.

But the British Foreign Office said the document consists of a majority report from the Indian and Polish commissioners of the ICC and a minority statement from the Canadian commissioner on what has been happening in Viet Nam.

Britain has decided, despite the refusal of the Soviets, to circulate the report to the members of the Geneva conference. It announced today it will release the contents in London as a white paper on March 8.

The Soviet Union's reasons for refusing to circulate the documents were not disclosed.

The Russian attitude was believed by observers to reflect Moscow's reluctance to commit herself to any initiative in the Viet Nam crisis.

Government sources stated that Britain has received no reply to date to diplomatic soundings in Moscow on the prospects of an acceptable peace settlement in Viet Nam.

Jets Bomb Viet Cong; Embassy Gets Apology

But U.S. Assailed For 'War'

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has promised "supplementary protection" for the U. S. Embassy in Moscow. But he coupled an apology for yesterday's attack with another renunciation of U.S. "aggression" in Viet Nam.

An American spokesman said Gromyko expressed "regret" for damage to the embassy by 2,000 demonstrators who stoned the building and clashed with Russian troops and police in a wild mob scene.

Most of the demonstrators were Asian. They stormed through barriers outside the building, grappled with 1,000 policemen and soldiers and hurled rocks, bottles and pieces of ice and metal at the embassy.

Windows on the lower floors had been boarded up, but more than 100 were broken. Gromyko promised U. S. Ambassador Foy Kohler the Soviet Union would pay for them.

The mob, which included a sprinkling of Africans and Russians, was protesting American air raids against Communist

Major Battle Raging

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — U. S. and South Vietnamese fighter-bombers today bombed and strafed Communist Viet Cong positions about 25 miles south of Da Nang where a major battle was reported raging. American planes airlifted troop reinforcements to the battle area.

Da Nang is the site of a major U.S. air base from which B57 jet bombers have carried out raids on Communist North Viet Nam.

EARLIER STRIKE

Eight U.S. Air Force F100 jet fighter-bombers took off from Da Nang to hit at the Communists in a followup to an earlier strike by Vietnamese propeller-driven Skyraiders.

Elements of two government battalions and a ranger battalion were airlifted to the site of the battle in Quang Nam Province, about 325 miles north of Saigon. One U.S. Army officer was wounded slightly yesterday.

CLOSED MEETING

American and Vietnamese officials directing the war effort went into closed-door meetings with the U.S. Army chief of staff, Gen. Harold K. Johnson and the rest of a high-level delegation which arrived last night from Washington.

One source said all the Vietnamese units, totaling more

Holdup Man Gets $190 In Armed Robbery At Tavern

A middle-aged man held up the bartender in the Barrel House at 927 Tamalpais Avenue, San Rafael, last night and got away with $190 from the cash till.

But John Childers Hinkle, one of the customers in the tavern at the time, was unaware of the armed robbery — he slept throughout the whole incident in one of the booths.

Patrolman Henry W. Ingwersen, who investigated, said the hold-up happened at 7:10 p.m.

The unsuspecting barman, Ernest Eddy of 805 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and another customer, Morland Leslie Turk of Point Reyes Station, saw the potential raider walk in. He went straight into the rest room.

But, in less than a minute, he returned, went behind the bar and told the pair to back up. He held what appeared to be a gun in his pocket.

The raider then took some currency and a check from the till and barked at the two men, "Don't move till you hear a car moving away."

Hinkle, also of Point Reyes Station, was ignored as he was sound asleep. After a car roared off he was awakened and police were called.

The bar is owned by Harry Hugh Stuart of San Rafael.

A description of the raider, issued today, was: aged 40-45, six feet tall, wearing a dark coat and slacks. Police this afternoon were still looking for him.

Earthquake Hits

TOKYO (AP)—An earthquake of medium intensity shook Fukui and some other areas in central Japan at 1:22 a.m. Saturday (8:22 a.m. today PST) the Central Meteorological Agency reported.

Thieves Find Safe Empty So They Wreck The Place

The burglars may have toyed with the idea of setting the building afire, Fairfax Police Sgt. Andy Grimes said. Officers found linseed oil, alcohol and paint thinner splattered over torn and scattered office records, wood veneer sheets and other items in the store.

The burglary took place after 11:15 p.m. yesterday. It was discovered when Grimes and Patrolman Guerney Cook checked the premises shortly after 3 a.m. today and saw that the six-foot high safe was missing from its place.

The safe, valued at more than $1,000 by proprietor Frank W. Boileau of 40 West Seaview Avenue, San Rafael, had been wrestled out of sight of the front windows, tipped on its back and battered open with tools taken from the store's stock. Grimes estimated that it required at least three men to move the safe.

The burglars apparently crawled over the lumber yard fence, climbed a rear staircase, forced an upstairs rear door and ransacked offices.

After working over the safe on the main floor, the burglars damaged two $500 calculating machines, tore up office papers, and spilled the flammables over a wide area. The only thing they took with them, store employees think, was a box of assorted tools.

Sergeant Grimes said the gang may have been frightened away by the patrol car's arrival. They apparently used the same door they had entered.

What Drives Women To Drink?

Politicians make them fold envelopes, and answer telephones—but never let them make the big decisions.

Mrs. Otsea

Even colleges discriminate, hesitating to admit matrons who want to take courses after their children are grown.

It's so bad, an Assembly committee was told yesterday, that women are being driven to drink.

"The lone drinker is becoming a tremendous problem among women," Mrs. Dorothy Ford of San Francisco told the Government Organization Committee.

Mrs. Marion Otsea of San Francisco, a part-time political worker who was Sen. Margaret Chase Smith's floor manager at the 1964 Republican convention, complained of the unfairness of men in politics.

"Women man the precincts, man the telephones and fold the envelopes," she said. "But the decisions are made by men."

U.S. Closing Indonesia Libraries

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States appears to be fighting a losing battle in its efforts to maintain friendly relations with the highly strategic nation of Indonesia.

The U.S. Information Agency announced yesterday it was closing immediately all its libraries and reading rooms, halting distribution of films and magaznes, and withdrawing all its personnel from Indonesia.

The action followed new demonstrations and seizure of U.S. libraries in Jakarta and elsewhere by the Indonesian government in recent weeks.

Spends Quiet Night

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Queen Louise of Sweden spent a quiet night, a communique said today. The 75-year-old queen was stricken yesterday with a blood clot caused by a change in her main body artery, the aorta. She was rushed to a hospital and underwent a six-hour operation.

Wealthy Germans

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) —The number of West German millionaires keeps on increasing. According to the latest count there were 11,663 two years ago. The total two years ago was nearly 2,500 more than the 9,217 millionaires counted on Jan. 1, 1960.

Possible Air Record

EDWARDS AFB (UPI) — The XB-70 flew for 62 minutes above mach 1 yesterday, possibly longer than any aircraft has exceeded the speed of sound. During the successful seventh test flight, the XB-70 reached a peak altitude of 51,000 feet and a top speed of nearly 1,200 mph.

Nine Oil Firms Seized By Syria

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—The Syrian government has seized nine oil companies in a major nationalization move, Radio Damascus announced Thursday night.

The companies include three foreign firms — Socony-Vacuum, Esso Standard and Shell. Esso Standard is a subsidiary of the American Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) and Socony-Vacuum is a subsidiary of the Socony-Mobil Oil Co. Shell is a subsidiary of the Royal Dutch Shell group which is under British and Dutch ownership.

The other six firms are Syrian concerns.

The announcement said the three foreign companies monopolized 67 per cent of the country's oil business for an annual profit of $2.63 million.

These profits, the radio said, would be used to promote the Syrian economy and "put it on the road of Socialist transformation." Syria is ruled by Baath Socialist party.

The broadcast said compensation will be made in the form of 15-year bonds at three per cent interest.

The nationalized firms will be operated by the government's general petroleum authority under Syrian management.

In January, the government nationalized 115 companies, a move that touched off an abortive merchants' strike in Damascus. Another 45 companies handling imports were seized two weeks ago.

Cranston's Libel Suit Is Dismissed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—At the request of State Controller Alan Cranston, Superior Court has dismissed a $2 million libel suit he brought last May against Pierre Salinger.

The action, filed while the two men were contesting for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, charged that Salinger had falsely accused Cranston of demanding campaign contributions from men he had appointed as inheritance tax appraisers.

Salinger, who held the senate post briefly as an appointtee, won the Democratic nomination but lost in the Nov. 3 general election to Republican George Murphy.

MESSY BURGLARY

14 More File For Schools Election

There was a last- day rush of candidates filing for school board posts at the county schools office today.

School board eletcions will be held April 20 and the filing deadline is 5 p.m. today.

The schools office today announced 14 new filings, including three incumbents, with several hours still remaining before the deadline.

Incumbents filing were Mervin McDonald, 1054 Hicks Valley Road, and William Barboni, 1052 Hicks Valley Road, Petaluma, for Lincoln School District Board, and Irving G. Levine, 340 Seadrift Road, Stinson Beach, for Bolinas-Stinson Beach School District Board.

New candidates, by school districts, filing today were:

Nicasio — Nick Kobseff, businessman.

Kentfield—Donald Elsener, 285 Vista Grande, Greenbrae.

Fairfax—Don Falkenberg, 535 Oak Manor Drive.

Curtains, Drapes Are Stolen

Paul Mendelsohn of 63 Via Navarro, Greenbrae, complained to San Rafael police yesterday that $500 worth of curtains and drapes have been stolen from his premises at 3 Marinita Avenue.

The missing property includes several sets of silk lined drapes. No forced entry was found.

Sweeney's Used Car Lot at 439 Francisco Boulevard reported a silver Jaguar coupe car was stolen Wednesday night. The office was broken into but only car keys were taken.

Victor John Tulipani of 12 Charlotte Drive, complained yesterday that a maroon fiberglass top was removed from his Chevrolet Corvette car when left in his carport. He said it had a gouge mark and he would know it anywhere.

Another auto was raided on Wednesday while parked outside 820 Fifth Avenue, but only a bag of business receipts were stolen. Puzzled owner Richard Kendall Mattos of 151 Deepstone Drive, Marinwood, told police they are useless to anyone else.

Police reported a cash theft from a vending machine near Seaway Marine, Inc., 145 Third Street. About $7 in dimes were missing.

Browne telephoned Miss Bonoyer while police were questioning her at about 2:30 p.m.

"We advised her to go along with him and tell him to come back to the apartment. He did and Officer Herb Smith and I staked out the area. When he arrived about 3:30 p.m. we arrested him without any struggle," Zink reported.

Zink said Browne had recently returned from Chicago.

Miss Black, who lives at 97 Forest Lane, San Rafael, and is an Independent-Journal classified advertising salesperson, "just happened to drop by," said Miss Bonoyer.

Business Core Urged For Novato

The area north of De Long Avenue and east of the present Highway 101 should be developed into a core of a business district for Novato, developer Douglas M. Christensen last night told a meeting of the Novato Downtown Improvement Assn. at Crocker-Citizens Bank.

Christensen bought the former Grant School property on Feb. 2 from the State Division of Highways. He is also purchasing the center portion of that property from Harry Johnson of Mill Valley, he said.

Santa Rosa Savings and Loan Assn. will open a Novato branch on this property at Grant Avenue and Highway 101, Christensen reported.

"There is no downtown area as such in Novato," he declared. "The logical place for it is in the area north of De Long where local traffic will leave the highway by-pass when it is constructed."

Johnson had protested about a previous demonstration at the embassy Feb. 9 when American authorities complained about "inadequate" police protection.

Last month the Russian police made virtually no effort to keep a mob from breaking every window on the first two floors.

Yesterday they acted much tougher. At least a dozen demonstrators were arrested and one report said a Russian soldier lost an eye in the fighting.

No one inside the embassy was reported injured, but Kohler rushed over to the foreign ministry and saw Gromyko.

He Should Have Had Joe Friday's Help

MUSKEGON HEIGHTS, Mich. (AP) — Patrolman Donald E. Bedwell, 26, was: Attacked and beaten by a teen-age gang when he sought to break up a fight; was hospitalized when a police cruiser was in an accident; fell on ice and sprained his ankle; and tangled with a holdup suspect who nearly pulled him out a second-story window.

So Bedwell turned in his badge, No. 13, and asked for a new number. He now wears Badge No. 17.

OBITUARIES

Jamie H. Smith, 72, Succumbs

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Jamie H. Smith, 72, Los Angeles businessman and member of the California Fish and Game Commission, died late yesterday from a heart attack suffered Wednesday.

Smith was in Washington to attend the annual convention of the National Wildlife Federation, of which he was regional director.

In Sacramento, Gov. Edmund G. Brown said Smith "was one of the best friends I ever had" "proved his dedication and devotion to the state he loved."

Smith was executive vice president and general manager of the Seven-up Bottling Company of Los Angeles.

He was a former member of the Athletic Commission, former Fish and Game Commission president, past president of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Commission, founder of the Seven-up Youth Foundation and president of the Pepperdine College President's Council.

Smith was appointed to the Fish and Game Commission in 1958 by former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight. He was reappointed last year by Gov. Brown.

JOSEPH PURCELL

Joseph C. Purcell, 52, formerly of 1266 Leafwood Drive, Novato, died yesterday in a Novato convalescent hospital. He had been there about six months.

A native of San Francisco, Purcell lived in Novato for three years. When he was hospitalized last October to undergo brain surgery, his wife, Julia R. Purcell, moved to San Francisco.

He was employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. for over 12 years and had been a member of the Holy Name Society of Our Lady of Loretta Catholic Parish, Novato.

Surviving, besides his wife, are a son, Michael Purcell; his mother, Aileen Purcell Senetras; two sisters, Mrs. June Lutticken and Mrs. Aileen Foster; four brothers, Raymond, James, Emmett, and Milton Purcell.

The funeral tomorrow will be from McAvoy-O'Hara Co., San Francisco, to St. James Church, San Francisco, where Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Interment will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

MRS. RENUCCI

Mrs. Marion Lund Renucci, 58, of 112 Clorinda Avenue, San Rafael, died yesterday at her home, apparently of a heart attack.

Firemen, called to the home, found her lying on the floor and were unable to revive her.

A native of San Francisco, Mrs. Renucci had lived in Marin County for 25 years. Surviving her are her husband, Alfred F. Renucci; a son, Alfred Carol McKenney, and a daughter, Mrs. Marion Leigh Allaire, and an aunt.

Funeral will be at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, tomorrow at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

OLGA WOOD

Mrs. Olga Valeria Wood, 83, was found dead in her bed yesterday afternoon in the family home at 5 Beach Road, Belvedere, according to Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley.

Mrs. Wood had been ill since Thanksgiving. Her death was discovered by her husband, Joseph, and daughter, Mrs. Alice C. Campbell, of 7 Beach Road at 5:50 p.m. Bradley said death was due to natural causes.

Mrs. Wood was a native of Iowa.

Teens, Adults Hold Talks On Problems

Tamalpais Valley grownups and teen-agers held a frank talk last night at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club meeting on today's young people.

Asked what teen-agers wanted, one replied, a recreation area and clubhouse.

Teen-ager Robert De Walt, questioned by Mrs. Midge Hamburg, club president, said a recreation area and clubhouse are needed where young people could play volleyball and basketball and participate in archery out-of-doors.

De Walt said Shoreline Highway is hazardous because it lacks space for pedestrians.

He told club members that he feels speeders should spend one day riding in an ambulance.

The teen-agers, with coordination from Rev. James Symons, pastor of St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church, presented a play, "The Hipster, The Square and The Delinquents." Discussion followed in which the teen-agers said they thought the play was "a little far fetched" but grownups thought teen-agers really act the way the players depicted.

than three battalions, were in difficulty. An almost complete lack of hard facts on the battle indicated a degree of confusion among Vietnamese forces caught in the area.

One American, an Army Special Forces enlisted man, was shot in the stomach while accompanying his troop on a combat patrol yesterday in the Viet An area south of Da Nang. He was evacuated to a hospital at Nha Trang and reported in serious condition.

In the operation east of Saigon, some 3,000 South Vietnamese soldiers were airlifted in the biggest helicopter assault of the Vietnamese war.

The troops moved through Phuoc Tuy Province, and U.S. jet fighter-bombers dumped hundreds of tons of boombs, but no contact was established with the Viet Cong.

Four Vietnamese soldiers were killed by B57 jet bombers in an accidental airstrike. Two others were killed in a hit-and-run Communist mortar attack.

During the operation, a scant 15 miles to the north, the Viet Cong overran the town of Rung La Tuesday, wiping out a company of regional defenders. By the time relief troops arrived, the Viet Cong were gone.

Also on Tuesday, the Viet Cong attacked a ranger company, killing 33 and wounding one.

The number of Americans killed in combat since December 1961 rose to 301 with the death of a U.S. Army Special Forces enlisted man.

Two Candidates For Mayor Are Circulating Papers

Both definitely-announced San Rafael mayorality candidates were circulating nomination papers today, and another hat was in the ring for the San Rafael Board of Education.

City Clerk W. Clifford Cornwell said he has issued nomination petitions for C. Paul Bettini and Dr. Charles W. Aby for the mayorality contest, and to Longshoremen's Union official Lawrence B. Thomas, 163 Oak Drive, for the board of education.

Another possible candidate for either the mayor's post or one of two vacancies on the city council, contractor Joseph R. Filippo, has not yet revealed his definite plans. Before Mayor Mayor John F. McInnis publicly declined a re-election draft movement last week, Filippo said he planned to run if McInnis didn't. However, after Aby announced, the contractor said he wished to confer with advisers before publicizing his plans.

$100 Cash, Loot Stolen From Home

Daytime burglary of the home of Mrs. Catherine Louise Crawford, 1081 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, netted intruders over $100 cash, two radios, and jewelry of undetermined value, sheriff's officers reported yesterday.

Mrs. Crawford told deputies the unlocked house was entered between 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Tuesday. She said the front door was left ajar by the departing burglars. Jewelry, she told officers, included two diamond rings.

Dr. Wilhelm F. Brawnshweig, owner of Marin Pet Hospital, 140 Jacoby Street, California Park, said burglars also entered the hospital, probably early Tuesday.

The intruders, probably seeking narcotics, removed a southwest window and ransacked the office and surgery room, he said. Nothing was believed taken and Dr. Brawnschweig said narcotics are no longer are kept there.

Tiburon Study Group Members

The Independent-Journal erred yesterday in naming some of the chairman of the Tiburon Citizens Planning Advisory Committee.

Philip S. Erlich Jr. and Stanley Peterson are co-chairmen of the committee studying residential subdivisions, not as incorrectly stated yesterday.

Black Muslims Report Shots

The Negro nationalist leader was in Chicago, where he maintains another home.

Guards at his home here said they chased briefly a late-model car from which the shots were fired. They said it looked like two white men inside.

Burglars Get $796 In Cash, Checks At Shop

Burglars entered Marin Racing Machines Inc., 11 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley Wednesday night and stole $796 in cash and personal checks.

Two medical offices at the Medical Center, 61 Camino Alto, were entered last night but nothing was reported taken.

Richard Coggins of Fairfax, co-owner of the sports car repair shop, told police yesterday that someone had entered through a broken window and pried open a door to steal two cash boxes. One contained about $200 in currency and cash; the other, about $10 in silver and $586 in personal checks.

Someone puched out a screen in the rear of the medical center building and entered offices of Dr. T. G. Brown and Dr. Carl E. Schlichmann, Dr. Brown reported at 10:45 p.m. yesterday. Nothing was missing, police said.

Khanh Meets With Thant

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh of South Viet Nam does not plan to press for a meeting of the U.S. Security Council to hear his account of Communist aggression in his nation, informed sources said today.

Khanh, deposed as Saigon's strongman in the latest of a series of coups last month arrived here Tuesday as a roving ambassador.

He met for more than an hour yesterday with Secretary General Thant in talks he described as cordial and useful.

There was no indication that Thant and Khanh narrowed the differences in their views on how to resolve the Vietnamese crisis.

Car Stereo Stolen

Car stereo plus 30 tape recordings, valued at about $310, were reported stolen by Richard Daniels from his car parked at 130 Lovell Avenue, police said today. Daniels informed police at 7:25 a.m. today.

Suffers Head Wound, Will Not Tell Why

Emergency room staff at San Rafael General Hospital last night treated a man with severe head wounds but he refused to say who caused them—except that it was a "friend."

The man was James Frisken Low, 48, of 745 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo. The doctor concerned said a bottle full of hand lotion did the damage and it could have been much more serious.

Driver Fined $166

John Alfred Moffett, 54, of 241 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Tuesday by San Rafael police on Third Street.

LINCOLN'S INAUGURATION

Abraham Lincoln's second inauguration was re-enacted at the Capitol in Washington, D.C., yesterday with everything but the weather and the crowds fitting the scene of March 4, 1865. Unlike the actual event, the sun was shining for the swearing-in ceremony. Actor Robert Ryan portrayed Lincoln with actor Gene Morrill playing the part of Supreme Court Justice Salmon P. Chase. Four Seniors At Drake To Get Trophies

Four outstanding seniors have been selected at Sir Francis Drake High School to receive trophies in the Bank of America achievement awards program.

Ron Skellenger will receive the trophy for science and mathematics, Tina Press for liberal arts, Bruce Saxton for fine arts, and Marleen Keellen for vocational arts.

In addition to the trophy winners, 10 students will receive certificates of merit for superior performances in specific fields of study. They are:

The trophy winners will compete for higher awards in the bank competition.

Trustee Appointment Bill Signed By Brown

A bill signed into law by Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday clears the way for a four-year term for three Novato school trustees, who would otherwise have come up for election again next month.

Seven trustees were elected last November to the board of the new Novato Unified School District.

Under previous law, the three who were elected with the least number of votes would have been forced to seek re-election again next month.

Several emergency bills, including one by State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, were introduced to correct the flaw. Senator McCarthy said today his bill can be dropped because another bill (AB 939 by Nicholas C. Petris of Oakland) which accomplishes the same purpose, was signed by the governor.

AB 939 permits County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis to appoint William H. Kirk, Gordon Leathers and Marett Boissevain to a four-year term beginning July 1. They will thus serve until 1969.

The four who won the most votes last November will come up for election again in 1967.

Kirk said he received word from Superintendent Hollis that appointment papers would be prepared today.

Without the new law, Kirk said he would have been forced to run again next month " for the fourth time in four years for the same four-year office." The other three races included two at which formation of the new unified school district by merger of San Jose Elementary District with the old Novato Unified District failed of passage.

Supervisors Set Three Sessions

The Marin County Board of Supervisors is scheduled to have separate workshop sessions with two county commissions Monday.

Supervisors are slated to meet at noon with the county planning commission for lunch at Sabella's Restaurant, Alto, and then for an afternoon conference at the Civic Center.

They also have scheduled a workshop session with the county parks and recreation commission for 8 p.m. at the Civic Center.

Larkspur Girl, 19, Joins Air Force

Shirlene Jeanne Harris, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Harris of Boardwalk, Larkspur, has enlisted in the Women's Air Force.

She will undergo basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., after which she will either receive specialized training in a technical school or join a directed duty assignment. Miss Harris graduated from Redwood High School in 1963.

There are two seminaries in Marin County — the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, and the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary on Strawberry Point.

Bagley Says Door Is Open For Kuchel In State Race

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Anaheim, would give the Republicans the best chance of capturing the California governorship, in the opinion of two of Kuchel's close associates.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, returned to Sacramento yesterday after a three-day trip to Washington, D.C.

Kuchel has not said he will run, but is leaving the door open to bid for the California governorship, Bagley reported.

"Senator Kuchel is vitally interested in seeing that the California Republican Party continues as a problem-solving, broad-based party," Bagley explained.

Bagley and Veneman also made these observations:

Kuchel could face a heated primary race with former Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell or actor Ronald Reagan. However, Kuchel would have a far better chance of beating Governor Brown or any other Democrat than would Shell or Reagan.

Sen. George Murphy will probably stay neutral in a primary fight between Kuchel and Shell or Reagan.

Bagley said Shell's statements "frighten me" and predicted that Reagan, if nominated would lose the state by a bigger margin than Barry Goldwater did last year.

Woman Reports Pellet Shots

Maria Efremenko of 41 Ross Valley Drive, San Rafael, complained to Patrolman Donald H. Jones of San Rafael police Wednesday that someone shot a airgun pellet through her kitchen window a few days ago.

She said she was working at her sink, in front of the window.

Stephen Cook of 177 D Street reported Wednesday that his black motorcycle was stolen from parking stalls at Redwood High School, Larkspur, some time ago. He said he had not complained earlier because he thought someone was just playing a trick on him.

'65 CHEVROLET

Top to bottom: Chevy II 100, Corvair 500, Chevelle 300, Chevrolet Biscayne. All 2-door models.

Hard to tell at a glance that each of these beauties is the lowest priced in its line. The ride doesn't show it. Or the interior. Or the performance. Just the price sticker.

That luxurious '65 Biscayne has as much room as many more expensive cars. Plus a handsome color-keyed interior with plush vinyls, fine fabrics, full deep-twist carpeting.

Chevelle 300 is the lowest priced version of America's favorite intermediate-size car. Clean new styling. Wide-opening doors. Roomy, tastefully trimmed interior. And all the easy-care features of the big Chevrolet.

Chevy II 100 got a whole lot smarter for '65—but kept its common sense! Still family-size. Still easy to handle. Still economical. Still the lowest priced Chevrolet you can buy.

Or get the international flavor of a rear-engine hardtop with a sporty Corvair 500 5-passenger sport coupe or 6-passenger sedan. Both promise fun for the months ahead.

The Chevrolet, Chevelle and Chevy II shown are all available with Chevrolet's economical Turbo-Thrift Six engine. Fuel economy is exceptional. It warms up quickly, idles quietly. Light weight and high efficiency make it quiet, comfortable, and a highly spirited turnpike performer.

In Corvair, the rear-mounted Turbo-Air Six delivers the best balance and traction for this size car. And no worry about water or antifreeze—it's air-cooled.

So be practical this spring. Check the great offer on your old car, the low payments on your new one. Only you will know how practical you've been. Because it sure won't show!

'Friendly' Battle In South Described

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

About once every other week in Indianola, Miss., Fred Winn, one-time student at the College of Marin and Sausalito resident, drops by the town's police station.

He walks into the police chief's office. "Hi, Fred! Sit down," offers the chief, an ex-Navy officer. The two talk about the weather awhile.

Finally, Winn mentions, "You've got 10 of our people in your jail."

"Well, they broke the law," comes back the chief, leading to a friendly discussion on various amendments to the United States Constitution.

When the sparring ends, Winn asks about bail. "A thousand dollars," suggests the chief.

"We'll try to get it in a couple of days," answers Winn, turning to leave. "So long."

On his way out, Winn, who is white, stops to take a drink of water from the drinking fountain reserved for Negroes.

Winn is in charge of a freedom school which has been bombed and burned, but which is still being used by Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee Workers. Yesterday at College of Marin and in an interview he described what his daily life is like in Mississippi.

"The Indianola group has had everything," Winn said. There have been bombings, shootings, fires, beatings, arrests and tear gas. But, with time, Winn and fellow workers have been able to reach a day-to-day accord with white officials.

"I've never been beaten,," Winn said, "but I've had to take to my heels a couple of times."

He said it was good that SNCC workers must take the beatings: "When they beat us, the local Negroes become incensed. If they beat a local Negro every night for two weeks, we'd be in real trouble."

The campaign in Indianola, and in surrounding Sunflower County, is to register Negroes to vote. But the immediate work is to organize local group unity among Negroes. Neighbors on a block are called together to map out a plan to approach the city council about a needed street light, for instance.

If the council gives them the light, they have learned they can get what they need by acting together. If they are turned down, their anger helps to keep them together.

Winn said school integration

FRED WINN

is coming soon to Mississippi, and that will help the voter drive.

Seventy per cent of the land in Sunflower County is owned by 23 families, Winn said. It is this small group of whites that really has a stake in segregation, he contended.

The civil rights worker said there are two main stumbling blocks to organizing Negroes in the south.

The first is that the Negroes have never been told how to organize and lack leadership. "There is no student government in grammar schools, which is partly how we learned to be citizens," Winn said as an example. The children are not even taught to participate in team sports.

The second factor is the Negro who cooperates with the power structure.

"There are always the one or two 'Uncle Toms' who are going to tell Mr. Charlie (the white boss) what's going on," Winn complained. "It breaks up the unity of the Negro community."

Winn, back in Marin on a brief visit, will again leave for the South at the end of next week.

He said he has been living with a Negro family and pays $5 a week for his food there. SNCC workers are paid $20 a week, "but that has been cut back to $10 the past few weeks."

There is great hope among workers in Mississippi that the challenge in Congress against seating of five Mississippi congressmen will be successful, Winn reported. "We only have to swing 69 votes," he added.

He said the depositions taken by northern attorneys, including several from Marin, should help the challenge, which is based on the contention Negroes were illegally denied the vote.

9:43 a.m., San Rafael—Small fire on open ground caused by igniting tar pot at Marin Roofing Co. premises, 450 Francisco Boulevard, no damage.

10:20 a.m., Lucas Valley — Dairy feed caught fire in holding tank at S. Balzan's Bulltail Ranch. Minor damage.

1:17 p.m., Santa Venetia—Resuscitator call to 17 Washington Street where 15-month-old Michelle Nite fell into swimming pool. Mouth to mouth respiration applied, but girl was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital.

1:23 p.m., San Rafael—Resuscitation call to 112 Clorinda Avenue where Mrs. Marion Lund Renucci was found by firemen lying on floor; woman died, apparently of heart attack.

2:20 p.m., Sausalito — Fire, caused by fan belt breaking and igniting motor of car of Martin Thompson, Western Woodcraft, San Francisco, on Highway 101 north of Waldo tunnel; minor damage.

TODAY:

2:39 a.m., Marinship — Firemen called to pump out flooding house boat owned by Margo Hopper; Coast Guard took over.

'Freedom School' Burns After Rights Meeting

INDIANOLA, Miss. (AP) — Fire destroyed the "Freedom School" at Indianola early today hours after some 200 persons had attended a weekly civil rights mass meeting.

No one was in the one-story building but civil rights workers said records, books, equipment and school desks were destroyed.

Police and fire officials said they had no reports back yet from the fire four blocks from the Sunflower County Courthouse.

"The place was burning 30 minutes before I got there," said John Harris, Negro project director for the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO). "You could see the blaze from six blocks away."

Harris said it was the second fire at the school. He said last October a fire was confined to the front part of the building.

The school was used for voter registration classes and to instruct Negro pupils who had boycotted their own school during the past two weeks.

Angel Island in the Bay was discovered by Juan Manuel da Ayala in 1775.

Palsy Campaign

Results of the month-long mailing campaign of the United Cerebral Palsy Assn. of Marin will be tabulated at the organization's board of directors meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the Terra Linda Valley Hospital, it was announced today by Judson E. Goodrich, president.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Why Not Try Individual Chinese Dish Next Time?

Chinese restaurants invariably frame their menus with two or three, maybe even more prescribed dinners, with all the dishes on each one spelled out. This is for the convenience of diners with no knowledge of Chinese.

The selections are popular and good. They are chosen with the idea of a balanced meal, and in time you get to recognize them.

But every menu also has a large number of individual or a la carte dishes listed. For sheer variety it's not a bad idea to get used to making choices from this list. If there are about four of you, the cost comes out about the same or very little more. If your imagination isn't up to it, your Chinese waiter or waitress can held.

FOR EXAMPLE, one of the finest Chinese dinners I have ever eaten was at Lin Fa Gardens in Northgate the other evening. Our spread came out as follows: Lobster Cantonese, chicken with asparagus, beef with tender young chard, sweet and sour shrimp, fried rice with pork — and a special chow yuk of Lin Fa with pork, sliced mushrooms, water chestnuts and peapods. Tea, of course, and cookies. My congratulations to Lom Hin and his kitchen staff. Heartily recommended.

Almost all of this was on the regular menu. Changes were minor, according to seasonal offerings in vegetables. But I doubt that we would have come out so well balanced without the heldp of Mrs. Ethel Barrie in making the selections.

Here now at the bar in the Mai Tai Room fulltime during the evening is Sandy Sandoval who makes a good looking Hawaiian for this Polynesian background.

FRANK TERRELL of San Francisco is new chef at McKee's, San Rafael. He was formerly at the Pine Tree in the city, and before that had his own business. Menu will remain the same, with possibly a few specialties.

Don Caseldine is now devoting all his time to catering, though he still works this through McKee's.

OPENING TONIGHT at Rancho Nicasio, and scheduled for a series of appearances on both Friday and Saturday nights, is the Steve Romano Trio, playing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. for dancing, and floor shows at 10 and midnight.

A couple of unusual circumstances are worthy of mention here. All members — Steve, Joe Vella and Rick Flores used to play at Bimbo's 365 Club in San Francisco—but not together. They've been trying to join forces for years, and this is the first occasion. Steve plays the fabulous new electronic accordion which has about as many sound effects as a 10-piece band; Joe plays bass and Rick is at the drums.

During Lent, the Rancho is featuring fish dishes on Wednesday and Friday nights. Halibut steaks are the specialty.

GORDON JONES of Rubini's in Fairfax will be a major chef personality contributing his talents to the huge memorial dinner for Nat King Cole planned by KSFO disk jockey Jack Carney for Monday night at the Off Broadway in San Francisco. Gordon's specialte de resistance will be his "pocket steak," new name for what he started calling a basket steak last month. It's stuffed with seafood.

Other Bay Area restaurants will offer various dishes. Night clubs such as the Purple Onion and Casa Madrid and entertainers like Turk Murphy are putting on the show. Funds will be contributed to the American Cancer Society.

ACCORDING TO SUNSET MAGAZINE'S March issue, no one really knows for sure where "cioppino" got its name, but probably was invented by the Italians in San Francisco. (Someone is sure to tell me now that he used to get it or fix it in Italy.)

This delicious fish stew is a flexible dish, designed to make use of what the fisherman's catch provides. Restaurants and chefs claim to have old recipes; all make it a little differently. Crab is the main ingredient around here — that's why you'll find crab cioppino on restaurant menus from November to July.

Most recipes usually call for three kinds of fish or shellfish, the latter with their clothes on — but there's nothing to say that you can't do the shelling beforehand and make the stew easier to eat. Someday some restaurant may do just that. Sourdough French bread and a green salad finish out the typical menu.

YOUNG COMEDY TEAM making its appearance tomorrow night at the Redwood Club San Rafael, is known as Peter and Patty and they have a good record behind them. You may have seen them locally as they've appeared on little theater and benefit programs. At the Redwood Club they'll be doing song and dance hits from Broadway shows.

Stints will be at 8 and 10 p.m. Between times and afterward the Commodores will play for dancing.

PATTY CARPENTER is a Novato girl and this month she'll do a part in "Take Her—She's Mine," featuring Walter Pidgeon and playing at the Hyatt House down the Peninsula. Her partner Peter Ariyu is from Piedmont.

THERE IS A CHANGE of faces at Alioto's Arbodale in Sausalito: Chef Maurice Guridi is off to Mexico for a month's vacation and has been replaced by Albert McElbury. Waitress Jeanette is bound for France (and may not return). In her place are Nina (formerly of Rubini's) and Clista Crews. Bob Truitt is gone and George Barstow is star at the bar.

HERETOFORE UNSHOWN oil paintings of Russ Rudzinski, who has been painting in the Bay Area, Tahiti and Mexico during the last seven years, had their first public display at Sam's in Tiburon this week. Subjects vary from still life to buoyant circus scenes in both muted and bright colors.

PHYLLIS MENDOZA got Casa Linda open again on the Miracle Mile, albeit a little delayed beyond her original schedule. She does the basic cooking here and will have a line of Lenten specials. Jose Gonzales from San Francisco is the night time waiter.

NEXT TUESDAY'S 50-cent spaghetti feed at the Office, Mill Valley, will turn over its proceeds to the Marin County Heart Fund.

OLD VIKING OWNERS

Phyllis and Matts Mattsson serve Swedish specialty dishes at the recently opened Old Viking in Lagunitas. The Mattssons moved here from the East Coast where they had a restaurant in New York, and purchased the former Lagunitas Gardens property.

Marin Dining And Wining

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?

Well, not for everybody.

You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.

And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.

But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

That would be Sam's in Tiburon.

Quiett Re-Elected By Rights Group

James Quiett of Marin City was re-elected chairman of the Marin County Human Rights Commission last night and an executive committee was formed.

Quiett and Wyman Hicks of Sausalito, who was re-elected executive secretary, are members of the new committee, along with Joseph Stewart of Corte Madera, Committee vice president, Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere and Rev. Karel F. Botermans of San Rafael.

Hicks explained the committee is separate from the executive board of commission.

Commissioners will ask county supervisors to seek fair housing legislation at the federal level, Hicks reported.

The commission also hopes to meet with supervisors to discuss implementation of recommendations made by the commission's housing task force, he said.

The commission also decided to meet twice a month, on the first and third Thursdays at 8 p.m. in the Civic Center, replacing the former once-a-month meeting schedule.

'Doctor's' Double Life Sham Comes To End

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — For seven years William Earl Summ, 42, a round-faced man with horn-rimmed glasses and a receding hair line, played a double life.

To his family and friends in Petaluma, he was "Doctor Summ." Even his aunt, with whom he stayed in San Francisco during the week, believed her nephew was a doctor.

Sometimes, Summ admitted, he even believed it himself.

"If you live it long enough, you begin to believe it," Summ said in explaining his career to probation officers.

Summ's story came to light in Sonoma County Superior Court yesterday when he was ordered to Vacaville Medical Center for observation. The details of his life were in a probation report revealed in court.

Summ reportedly obtained $6,000 in unsecured bank loans to finance his "medical education" and "practice." His father sold the family home to raise money for Summ's schooling. His double life was exposed after one of his checks, written to a Petaluma pharmacy, bounced and the pharmacist became suspicious.

Summ, charged with six counts of obtaining money under false pretenses, pleaded guilty to two counts.

It all began in 1958 when Summ dropped out of San Francisco State College after six months of a pre-medical course.

But he continued to return home on weekends and go back to the city during the week as if he were still hard at work at his studies. He wore a white surgical gown for his aunt's benefit on several occasions and was seen in the hallways of University of California Medical Center in the gown several times.

When he announced that he had graduated, his Petaluma friends gave a party and presented him with a black medical bag.

Summ told his friends that he was working as a surgeon. He said once he was to appear on television in an operation, but explained no one would recognize him because he would be wearing a surgical mask.

Trouble with this life of sham was lack of funds. Summ said he could not work because "I was compelled to live like a doctor."

His sham fooled four Petaluma banks. His first loan was for $731.50 from Bank of America while he was still in school.

He had no income to pay his back, so later got other loans to cover the first debt.

Investigation revealed that as of Feb. 1 he owed Bank of America $806, Crocker-Citizens $2,437, Wells Fargo $1,054 and Bank of Marin $1,829.

William Robinson, deputy Sonoma County probation officer, said Summ believes he was acting under the influence of his late mother, a strong-willed woman who wanted him to become a doctor.

Hit-Run Charge Filed In Accident

A misdemeanor hit-run driving charge has been filed against Edward A. Christensen, 38, in a San Rafael traffic accident last Saturday, the district attorney's office reported today.

A warrant for his arrest has been issued. Bail was set in Marin Municipal Court for $376.

Police said Christensen, 65 Wellington Avenue, Ross, was driver of a car which collided with that of Andrew A. Eggum, Concord, at Second and D streets. They said Christensen continued eastbound without stopping until Norman C. Ortman Jr., 115 Manor Drive, Mill Valley, chased and halted him.

Driver Fined $166

Genevieve Lee Paris, 40, of 23 Landsdale Avenue, San Anselmo, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. She was arrested by California Highway Patrol last Dec. 24 on Highway 101.

For a youngster, the best medicine is often a new coloring book or a better doll. Later, as growing pains become more sophisticated, other remedies are in order. Usually, the prescriptions will range from a tiny time pill to a wee bit of something on the rocks. But, whatever the malady, Northgate promises instant relief. No headaches from traffic or parking either. In fact, it will soon make you feel good again all over.

A CASE OF EARLY SPRING FEVER

Marinwood Directors Reject Building Bids

Directors of the Marinwood Community Services District last night rejected bids on construction of a maintenance building at Marinwood Park as excessive.

Directors had estimated $2,500 for the structural steel building, and all four bidders were above that, ranging up to $3,800.

The board agreed to consider either buying a used building or constructing a wooden building, according to Mrs. Genevieve Bolding, secretary.

Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, executive officer of the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission, told of commission procedures and stressed the need for fire protection in unincorporated areas.

Jerrol L. Flood, former Marinwood parks and recreation commissioner, joined the board. He was recently appointed to complete the term of Dr. William C. Sullivan, who resigned, until June 1966.

Aide Named To Public Defender

Harold J. Truett, San Rafael attorney, has been named assistant to public defender Jerome Durham.

Durham, who was named public defender Feb. 9, said his choice of Truett was effective Monday. Truett is with the San Rafael firm of Truett, Durham and Conn. and resides at 181 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo.

His starting salary as assistant public defender is $650 a month, Durham said. The vacancy was created when Durham moved up from assistant to replace Peter Allen Smith, appointed Municipal Court judge.

Somerst Maugham Going To Hospital

NICE, France (AP) — Somerset Maugham still is in serious condition and will be taken to the hospital this afternoon, his secretary said.

The 91-year-old writer came down with the grippe early this week. Lung congestion developed.

Lack Of Quorum

There was no meeting of the Stinson Beach Progressive Club Wednesday night because of lack of a quorum. The next meeting, according to Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, member, will be April 7.

Hospital District Session Set

A special meeting of the board of Marin Hospital District has been called for 8 a.m. Monday at Marin General Hospital to appoint two new board members and discuss in closed session the latest suit filed against the district by Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman.

Board member Paul Kent will submit his resignation as of April 1. An employee of Fairchild Semi-conductor, he has been transferred to Mountain View.

The second post to be filled is that left vacant at the start of the year when Ernest N. Kettenhofen became a county supervisor.

The closed meeting with attorney Harold F. Riede will be to discuss the suit charging the board violated the Brown Act when it held a closed meeting Feb. 23 to discuss whether Ascherman should be given temporary staff privileges.

Mariner-4's Voice Turned Up In Space

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—The voice of Mariner-4 from outer space grew 40 times louder today as the spacecraft's "brain" automatically ordered a switch over of radio signal transmission to high gain antenna.

The command was given when Mariner, hurtling toward a photographic meeting with Mars, was 27 million miles from earth.

In effect the antenna switchover means the radio signal from Mariner will be sent to earth in a narrow beam rather than dissipated in a 360-degree circle. It is similar to a radio station going directional to reach further distances.

Scientists said the increasing distance between Mariner-4 and earth required that its radio signal be concentrated in a narrow beam in order to maintain communications during the remaining months of the mission to Mars.

Mariner is scheduled to fly within 6,000 miles of Mars by July 14. The space probe will snap a series of photographs of Mars which will be transmitted back to earth for the first close-up view of earth's closest planetary neighbor.

Cost Estimates Due On Station

Commissioners of the Tiburon Fire Protection District last night learned that they will receive cost estimates at their April 1 meeting on Station 2.

Chief Frank J. Buscher said detailed plans of the work have been approved.

Fireman Thomas Murphy who has completed his first half of his one-year probation was given a raise from $481 to $505 a month.

Fagundes Faces More Charges Of Neglect

More woes for alleged animal cruelty have been visited upon rancher J. A. Fagundes with filing yesterday of a new complaint in Marin Municipal Court.

The complaint filed yesterday by the district attorney's office charges him with neglect of livestock at three ranches. A warrant for his arrest was issued by Judge Peter Allen Smith and bail set at $276.

Fagundes already is facing three other misdemeanor counts of animal cruelty on the ranch he recently sold on the west side of Highway 101, south of Lucas Valley Road. He is free on $1,000 bail on that complaint, and is to enter plea at 1:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said the new charge is result of Fagundes' refusal to care for his animals after the first complaint was filed.

He said Mel L. Morse, executive director of the Marin County Humane Society, on Feb. 26 wrote Fagundes giving him until last Monday to correct the condition.

Morse told Bales that Fagundes refused to sign a receipt of the warning, which included a prescribed minimum of food for horses, cattle, and pigs. Morse said Fagundes also failed to comply by the deadline.

In yesterday's complaint he is accused of failure to properly feed horses and cattle at the Highway 101—or Lucas Valley road ranch; cattle at that ranch and the Henry Ottolini Ranch in San Geronimo Valley, and cattle and pigs at the White Gate Ranch on Panoramic Highway above Stinson Beach.

Bailes said Morse told him also that it appears Fagundes has kept animals with diseases —including ringworm which is communicable to humans—on the ranches. There is evidence that ringworm has been carried into public schools, he declared.

Trustees Hear Test Results

Students in seventh and eighth grades at Tomales School came within a few points of the state average in all subjects, in state tests, Principal David Raffo last night told the Tomales Bay School District board.

The trustees accepted a public address system with a record player and eight sets of earphones as a gift from the Parent-Teacher Association. This can be used for instruction in English and language courses, and for broadcasting over the playground.

The board accepted the resignation of Frank Judd, seventh grade teacher.

It set for 8 p.m. March 18 a special meeting at Tomales School to discuss salaries.

$200 In Tools Reported Stolen In Homestead

Theft of $200 worth of tools and other items from a parked tractor-truck in Homestead Valley was reported yesterday to sheriff's officers.

Clarence R. Lee of Sebastopol told deputies entry to the locked truck, parked between Miller Avenue and Almonte Boulevard Wednesday, was by prying a door. A hydraulic jack, wrenches, a timing light, six quarts of oil and a tool box were taken.

Marie Danielson, moving into a house on Calle del Pinos, Stinson Beach, reported $500 worth of clothing and a camera were taken some time during the past few days. She told officers entry was via an unlocked door.

A $450 portable 115-volt generator was stolen from the unlocked garage of Frederick C. Rowley, Drakes View Drive, Inverness Park, he reported Wednesday.

Chile City Will Receive Willow Plant

Sausalito Mayor Jan Paul Dyk will present a golden willow to Don Hector Burr, consul general of Chile, at 1 p.m. tomorrow in Vina Del Mar Plaza in a windup of week long Sister City ceremonies.

Should weather be inclement, the presentation will be held at the anniversary breakfast at 10 a.m. at Alta Mira Hotel.

The willow is in honor of the fifth or wooden anniversary of the sister city relationship between Sausalito and Vina Del Mar, Chile.

The tree will be taken from San Francisco to Miami by National Air Lines and to Santiago by Peruvian Air Lines. It will be presented to Dr. Herman Lillo, Vina people-to-people committee chairman, to be planted in a Vina Park named after Sausalito. Sausalito is named after little willow thicket.

An engraved redwood plaque will accompany the gift.

Weather permitting, there will be a concert by the Sixth Army Band at noon in the Sausalito Plaza.

Rev. John S. Thornton, pastor of Christ Episcopal Church, will give the invocation at the breakfast; Mayor Dyk will welcome guests, and Burr will speak, as will Jorge Bernales, past president of Centro Chileno Lautaro. Robert E. Rogers will present assay contest awards to Richardson Bay School Children and Loren L. Jay, Sausalito committee chairman, will report on the Sister City program.

Nine Elected Homeowners Directors

Nine persons were elected to the board of directors of Marin Estates Homeowners Assn. at the annual meeting last night at Granada School in Corte Madera.

Selected were Dr. H. R. Husen, George Hebbert, H. S. (Pete) Norville, Larry Pierano, Richard J. Franks, Don Sutherland, Mrs. Donna Hart, John W. Gates and Michael Brown.

Plans for 1965 were reviewed by outgoing President Norville, who called for stricter traffic enforcement in the area by Corte Madera jolice, use of the Granada school playground, development of a pre-school playground at the end of El Comino Drive, and support of the Corte Madera recreation tax limit election April 20.

Granada School principal Paul Coste, with slides and a tape recording, demonstrated the use of space for teaching in the experimental hexagon-shaped school.

Hour Of Music

An hour of music from San Francisco's Palace of Legion of Honor by organist Ludwig Altman and Marin's Winifred Baker Chorale will be carried live by FM radio station KFOG March 14 starting at 3 p.m.

Over 250,000 people in 130 countries bought an Opel Kadett last year.

Do they know something you don't?

Did you know the Kadett is made in Germany by General Motors?

Did you know it has bucket seats and a 4 speed floor shift and enough other standard equipment to make a lot of other cars look positively stripped down?

Did you know the sedan and sports coupe have trunks the size of real, honest-to-goodness trunks? And that the wagon has 50 cubic feet of cargo space?

Did you know there are Buick/Opel dealers all across the country that you can count on for parts and service?

Did you know you can buy a brand-new Kadett for the price of a good used car?

Well, now you know.

Those 250,000 people. They're still one up on you, though. They've actually driven a Kadett.

Are you going to let them get away with that?

BAKER REPORT CALLED PHONY

Sen. Curtis, Katzenbach Clash Over Value Of FBI Investigation Summary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Bobby Baker's wheeling and dealing has embroiled everyone from President Johnson to Capitol Hill page boys in the nation's most publicized investigation. Now he has a Republican senator and the attorney general at each other's throats.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., set it off. He charged in a speech on the Senate floor yesterday that a Justice Department report which discredited the testimony of a key witness in the investigation was a phony.

Curtis said that the report, which he called a resume of FBI interviews, was nothing more than an attempt to scare off witnesses who dared to talk against the "politically powerful." It was an effort, Curtis said, to destroy the testimony of Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent who became prominent as the chief accuser in the Baker investigation.

Atty. Gen. Nicholas Deb. Katzenbach vigorously denied Curtis' implication. He said the report to the Senate Rules Committee was an accurate summary of the FBI investigation.

"There are two statements which should be made about the investigation and the report," he said.

"First, Mr. Hoover (FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover) has confirmed to me that no limitations were placed on the FBI in this investigation.

"Second, Mr. Hoover has reviewed this report and confirms my belief that the report is accurate and succinctly portrays the facts developed during the FBI investigation."

Man Bound Over In Attack Case

Robert Lester Marsh, 28, of 123 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, was bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday on a charge of assault with intent to rape a 15-year-old girl.

He originally was charged with rape by threat of harm, but Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court during the preliminary hearing directed the change of charge.

Marsh was arrested Feb. 20 after the girl told her brother she was raped in Marsh's home.

On Dean's List

Among the 134 students at Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., named to the dean's list for the fall semester was Mary Lyn Nelson of San Anselmo.

Baby Locks Self In Home's Bedroom

Young Jack Sunski is only 20 months old but he caused a bit of a scare yesterday when he locked himself in a bedroom at his parents' San Rafael home.

Firemen were called to 47 Kinross Drive at 9:25 a.m. and a door jam had to be removed to get the youngster out. He was there all right—safe and sound.

More State College Money Is Requested

They adopted a resolution yesterday urging restoration of a $35 million cut from a proposed budget of $165 million.

Gov. Brown's budget included $130 million for the colleges, instead of the higher figure. He proposed a 5 per cent faculty pay increase instead of the 15.8 per cent requested. He disapproved a 16 per cent increase in faculty members.

The trustees also heard an outline of Assembly Bill 600 by its author, John Collier, R-South Pasadena.

The legislation would give state college students an alternative—pay tuition or sign an I. O. U. payable with interest over a 20-year period. Collier said it would bring in $250 million annually to the state.

Among those opposing a tuition charge were Robert Pisano, president of the State College Presidents' Association, and Robert Phelps of the California College and University Faculty Association.

Favoring the bill was E. Maxwell Benton of the California Taxpayers Association.

"The revenue from tuition fees can be used to reduce the load on the general taxpayer and place more of the burden on those who stand to benefit from potentially higher incomes in future years," Benton said.

Swim Class Injury Suit

Tamalpais High School District is being sued for $30,000 damages as result of a swimming class injury to Rebecca Kraus, 14, a student at Sir Francis Drake High School.

The suit, filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court on behalf of the girl by her mother, Mrs. Hatty Kraus of Buena Vista Drive, alleges negligence in protecting swim classes resulted in a back injury and internal injuries to the girl last Oct. 15.

Theodore W. Rosenak, San Francisco attorney for the plaintiff, said another student jumped on Rebecca while she was in the pool.

Permit Requested For Pile Driving

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kimmel of 55 West Shore Road, Belvedere, have requested a navigational permit from the Army Corps of Engineers to allow driving pilings in Richardson Bay for construction of a house adjacent to West Shore Road.

The corps will not act on the application until April 2, allowing time for anyone who wishes to protest. Protests must be in triplicate to the corps' office at 100 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

McDonald Puts Pressure On For Steel Parleys

PITTSURGH (UPI) —United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald has refused to grant an immediate extension of the union's May 1 strike deadline against the steel industry, leaving the two sides eight weeks of pressure bargaining for a new contract.

However, McDonald, under fire from business, government and labor itself to grant an extension of the current contract, left the door open to such a possibility.

McDonald met yesterday with other top union officials and later announced:

"The union reaffirmed its belief that discussion of an agreement extension is premature."

He refused comment when asked if he would consider an extension when bargaining resumes here next Tuesday.

Girl Returns

Shirley Ann Denham, 15, missing since Saturday, has returned to her Marin City home, sheriff's deputies said yesterday. The mother, Mrs. Mary Alice Denham, 103 Drake Avenue, told officers the girl had been visiting her father in San Francisco.

Labor Report Spurs Johnson Domestic Legislation Plea

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has told Congress the economy will have to expand an average 4¾ per cent every year until 1970 to drop unemployment to a "more acceptable level."

The President did not say what level would be considered acceptable as he forwarded his annual manpower report to Congress yesterday. But officials said the production rise mentioned would bring unemployment down to three per cent from February's five per cent.

The 276-page document, largely a Labor Department survey of job trends and prospects, was accompanied by a presidential appeal for passage of the administration's domestic program.

In a statement issued at the White House, the President said the findings underline the urgency of approving his education, antipoverty and job-training measures.

"Their success," he said, "can move us closer to our manpower goal: that no human talent shall go to waste; that every American shall have full and equal opportunity to develop himself to the limit of his abilities."

Ride On Motorcycle Ends In Hospital

Michael Cronin, 17, of 29 Rowland Court, San Anselmo, yesterday contemplated buying a motorcycle and took it for a spin around the block near his home in San Anselmo at 5:35 p.m.

Minutes later he was being treated for bruises over much of his body at Marin General Hospital, after the cycle crashed into a metal pipe banister at the Wade Thomas School.

Soldier Assigned

Lt. Terry J. Forsyth of 2514 Mar East, Tiburon, has begun a two-year of duty with an Army missile battalion in Germany. He left the United States after completing artillery officer basic training and the Hawk missile course last month at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Marin Held Too Small For Charter

Marin County is still too small to become a charter county, San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce directors decided unanimously yesterday.

The action came after two weeks of committee study. County Administrator Alan Bruce had asked views on a proposal to elect a board of freeholders to draw up a charter.

The chamber directors' resolution said the present setup is adequate.

The chamber directors endorsed proposed legislation to allow the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District to help finance a study of new bridge routes from Marin to San Francisco. The resolution took a slap at persons who have called for the bridge to be brought under control of the State Toll Bridge Authority. It urged the proposed law "without intimidation from some factions of state government to turn the Golden Gate Bridge over to state control."

Marines Take Beach In War Games Climax

By RALPH DIGHTON

CAMP ENDLETON, Calif. (AP) — The first waves of an assault force of 20,000 Marines stormed ashore today in a noisy and spectacular climax of Exercise Silver Lance, a joint Navy-Marine maneuver involving 60 ships and 50,000 men.

The landing was made in a calm surf under cold, gray skies. It was preceded by a noisy "bombardment" — detonation of charges buried in the beach to simulate impact of shells from ships offshore.

Waves of 1,000 men each began battering the beach at this Southern California Marine training ground at 9 a.m., and less than two hours later officials announced "The beach is ours."

Under deafening but harmless simulated gunfire, the men moved ashore from nine troopships, supported by two aircraft carriers, a cruiser, 12 destroyers and other attack vessels.

Hundreds of visitors and newsmen occupied the sand dunes rising on either side of White Beach, 80 miles south of Los Angeles, to watch the impressive display, typical of operations expectable in limited war situations such as South Viet Nam.

An expected high surf failed to develop and there were apparently no actual casualties.

At sea, 5th graf 137.

Meeting Cancelled

Regular meeting of trustees of the new Novato Unified School District, scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday, has been cancelled because of a lack of business and the absence of two members of the board. Next regularly scheduled meeting will be at 8 p.m. March 22, at the Novato Unified School District administration building.

Meeting Postponed

Marin Junior College District's board of trustees meeting, scheduled for last night, was postponed to next Thursday because no quorum was available.

Passenger Injured In Auto Mishap

Bertha Byes, 37, of Berkeley, was slightly hurt when the car in which she was riding brushed a milk tanker truck on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard just inside the east boundary of Samuel P. Taylor State Park about 4:40 p.m. yesterday.

Truckdriver Leroy John Hardy, 27, of 85 Topeka Avenue, San Rafael, was headed west, and Carlton J. Grant, 44, of Berkeley, with whom Mrs. Byers was riding, was headed east. Mrs. Byers refused hospitalization.

Voters Fail To Show For Tax Hearing

Only one citizen attended last night's hearing on the Lagunitas School District tax election set for Tuesday.

"We have to assume that people will be voting for it or have already made up their minds to oppose it," Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff said. The meeting closed soon after it opened, McCunniff said.

Voters will be asked to approve indefinitely a 75 per cent over-ride tax, permitting the general operating tax to stay at $2.65. If Tuesday's measure fails, the tax limit would drop to $1.90 per $100 assessed valuation.

District's total tax is $3.34, including 24 cents for bond retirement and 45 cents for retirement, community services and other over-rides.

Trustees Glen E. Twitchell and John Nielsen, two members of the school tax committee and McCuniff, and the lone citizen were the only persons present last night.

Employment Of Arrested Man

Duane Brook, 40, arrested after an auto accident Wednesday in Mill Valley, is employed by Pacific Coast Title Co.'s office in Mill Valley, not by Marin Title Co. as reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

There is no Marin Title Co. in Mill Valley, although there is an office of the similarly named Marin Title Guaranty Co.

Brock, who resides at 39 Echo Lane, Corte Madera, was charged with felony driving after a head-on auto crash in which John George, 59, of 233 Elinor Avenue, Mill Valley, child welfare and attendance coordinator of Tamalpais High School District, suffered minor injuries.

Jury Discusses Committee Action

The 1965 Marin County Grand Jury in its first night meeting Wednesday discussed progress in organizing its eight committees, but no action was taken and no criminal indictment returned.

Larkspur School Science Fair Winners Announced

Gordon Daum, seventh grader, yesterday won top award at the Henry C. Hall School Science Fair in Larkspur with a display of the combustability of different kinds of fabrics.

Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Daum, 110 Crescent Road, Corte Madera, carefully burned holes in about 30 samples of cloth with a cigarette to show differences among the materials.

First place among eighth graders in physical sciences went to Kenneth Levin for a display on communications in space. Gail Mahood in the same grade took top honors for life sciences for a demonstration of plant growth inhibitors.

In the seventh grade, young Daum had top honors in physical sciences, and Sharon Loeffler was judged best in life sciences displaying similarities and differences in the June bug.

First place in the sixth grade went to Janice Shobar for observations of yeast at different temperatures, while Louis Segale was best in the fifth grade, showing effects of filtered light on plant growth. Janet Rice topped the fourth grade with her robot musical babysitter.

The fair was held last night.

Brown Tells State Plan For Floods

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown issued a report today outlining a far - flung statewide flood control program to combat any repetition of the recent Christmas week floods.

Drawn up by a committee headed by Water Resources Director William E. Warne, the program recommends congressional authorization and construction of the Marysville and Auburn reservoirs as soon as possible.

Early construction studies are recommended for reservoirs on the Mad and Russian rivers, tributaries of the Upper Sacramento River and three Eel River reservoirs.

The report also calls for investigations in nine Northern river basins.

Top State Jobs Study Completed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A set of sweeping changes were proposed today to end California's "critical shortage" of management personnel in top state jobs.

After an eight - month study, the Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy found the state government's senior management group of about 1,500 persons is dwindling because of more attractive pay offers from private industry.

The study group, known as the "Little Hoover Commission," also declared the state spends only $2.30 per person for managerial and technical training compared to $17 by the federal government and $50 by large private companies.

Note was taken of present civil service examinations procedures which exclude half the qualified personnel by limiting eligibility to persons in the department where a vacancy occurs.

Recommendations the commission offered to Gov. Brown and the legislature included:

—A biennial salary survey of upper management salary levels in exempt and civil service positions.

—Acceleration of management training on all levels, and at least one per cent of the executive staff to attend college or university full-time at state expense.

—Conducting open examinations for all management vacancies, with eligibility for persons outside government.

—Reducing the mandatory retirement age from 70 to 65 years with options for extensions on a year-to-year basis.

—Rotation of potential senior managerial candidates in departments where they would receive best training.

—Discontinuing the present veterans exemption and re - establishing it for five years only after a national wartime emergency.

Fellow Demo Calls Unruh Power Seeker

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A fellow Democratic assemblyman pictures Speaker Jesse M. Unruh as a "power seeker" who passes out prized committee posts and campaign money to lawmakers who support him.

'Only he knows from whence funds accumulate," said Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton of Merced, who lost his committee chairmanship this year after he refused to vote for Unruh for speaker.

"The individual candidate knows only that he may receive assistance through the speaker's largesse."

Winton, in a speech prepared for a State Junior Chamber of Commerce Governmental Affairs seminar yesterday, said Unruh, from Los Angeles, "has solicited campaign funds" from pressure groups seeking to "maintain a status quo."

He has solicited this money, Winton charged, "for redistribution to other candidates."

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL
THE ASSEMBLY

Measures introduced:

AB1644 Crown—Repeals Buy American Act, which requires state to purchase goods made in America.

AB1639 Garrigus—Eliminates special tuition fees for nonresidents at University of California and state colleges.

AB1636 Barnes — Discourages distribution of pornography.

AB1641 Z'Berg—Extends billboard restrictions to state highways.

THE SENATE

Measures approved:

SB153 Cobey—Increases Small Claims Court jurisdiction from $200 to $300.

SB268 Collier — Levies nine-month additional penny-a-gallon gasoline for repair of flood-damaged highways, streets and bridges.

SB7 Davis — Appropriates $3 million for repair of flood-damaged public property such as jails and sewers.

Measures introduced:

SB669 Petersen — Authorizes state colleges to develop parking areas.

SCA19 McAteer — Prohibits city or county from taxing land on which an airport of another city or county is located.

SJR28 Schmitz — Asks Congress to launch Liberty Amendment to repeal income taxes and take federal government out of competition with private business.

Drake Planning Arts Festival

A fine arts festival will take the place of the spring musical at Sir Francis Drake High School this year.

The change is due to the inability to find a script the students could play, said Robert Johnson, drama teacher.

The festival will include music, drama, dancing, art, painting, ceramics, photography, and possibly poetry and jewelry. Date has not been set.

Eagle Pass, Tex., has rail connections with Mexico.

Sausalito Police Plan Reserves

The Sausalito Police Department is initiating a formalized reserve training program for men who intend to make law enforcement a career.

"We're looking for about 10 men," reported Sgt. Ted Zink, reserve coordinator. He said men interested may see either him or Chief Kenneth H. Huck at the station between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Training will be in Sausalito.

In the past the department has had an auxiliary program using volunteers to work part-time, mainly at night, to assist the department while also holding down regular jobs elsewhere.

Most Water Fowl Heading For North

Most of the water fowl that use Richardson Bay sanctuary have left for northern breeding grounds and the area will be reopened to the public on March 13, Carl W. Buchheister, president of the National Audubon Society, announced today.

He commented, "The Society wishes to thank the people of neighboring communities for their fine cooperation." The sanctuary is closed to the public each fall when over-wintering migratory birds are plentiful.

Unruh Leery Of Senate Bill To Increase Gasoline Tax

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh said today he views "with some reservations" a Senate-passed bill to boost the state gasoline tax one cent a gallon for nine months.

The additional money—an anticipated $57 million — will go for repairs of bridges and roads in flood-stricken Northern California.

The measure breezed through the Senate yesterday by a vote of 30-3, three more than the required two-thirds margin.

The increase, boosting the state gasoline tax from seven to eight cents a gallon, would go into effect April 1 if approved by the Assembly and signed by the governor.

The nine month period was a compromise between the wishes of Gov. Brown and Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, the sponsor of the bill.

Brown had suggested a six month limit on the tax while Collier asked for a one year period.

Unruh told the Associated Press that "there are several things in the bill which I want to check before taking a position."

"I must admit," he added, "that right now I have several reservations concerning this measure." He did not spell out what these reservations may be.

Without Unruh's support the bill would have little chance of clearing the Assembly.

When asked if his stand indicated the bill might find rough sledding in the lower house, Unruh replied:

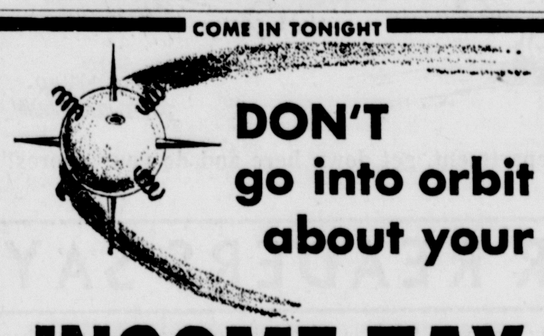

"You can't say that. Some of my concerns may be removed after further study, but at this time I can't say more than that I do have these reservations."

Roman Feast Setting Planned For Banquet

Terra Linda High School's Latin Club will have a Roman feast setting, including olive wreaths and white togas, at its annual banquet April 2 at the high school cafeteria.

Members of the club will present a performance of "The Robe," and freshmen will act as slaves.

Don't Shrug Off Safety Tips For Fire Dangers

Our fight against disasters is never-ending.

It seems only yesterday that we were digging out from under water and muck deposited by the winter floods.

And now, with the first sign of spring, fire emerges as another public enemy.

During the past week, several homes and a market were destroyed by flames. These involved only property, but eventually, fire will take its toll of human lives. The best we can do is to try to keep that ttoll to the absolute minimum in Marin County.

The National Safety Council reports that the country averages 600,000 residential fires annually. That means 1,600 homes burned each day.

Worse yet, 6,300 persons are killed or injured in home fires each year.

The danger of leaving matches or combustibles within reach of young children has been repeated so often that the reminder gets tiresome. So do the suggestions on cleaning out the closet and getting rid of accumulated rubbish, both inside the home and in the yard.

Warnings against overloaded circuits and worn or frayed electrical cords also fall in the "we know all about it" category.

All right. So you know all about it. Then don't let familiarity breed contempt and carelessness.

Do you know whether you live inside or outside the city limits? This could make a difference when you frantically try to call the fire department. Each call to the wrong department can mean another few minutes of delay.

If your bedroom is on the second floor, is there a way out if the regular exit is blocked by flames?

Does the entire family have a fire escape plan?

Do you have a garden hose that can reach all parts of the house?

These are trivial to be sure. You may have bigger problems to tackle—like the world situation in general or the atom bomb or conquering space.

But when a little home fire strikes, a well-placed ladder or a length of garden hose could come in much handier than the bomb shelter you've been working on for the past three years.

Bert Klahn Served Well

In public service, Bert Klahn set a shining example through his long and dedicated work in the redevelopment of an integrated Marin City.

For more than 15 years, Klahn served as executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority and the Redevelopment Agency. Those were during the height of an influx of all races, and during the difficult transition from wartime housing to permanent apartments.

The calm with which the community went through those trying times is a tribute to "The father of Marin City redevelopment."

Residents fondly remember him as a man "who showed genuine interest in the welfare of the community and was very well liked by all."

Bert Klahn will be missed by the county in general and Marin City in particular.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

San Rafael Race, Orphan Annie Share Spotlight On This Page

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

SAN RAFAEL HAS a way of monopolizing the political spotlight on odd numbered years, because most of the others vote on even years.

So it's all San Rafael this year. Only serious competition for attention comes from the current battle for and against Orphan Annie, The Ryatts, Family Circus, and McGurk's Mob.

My favorites are Nancy and Family Circus.

In the race for San Rafael mayor, you've got to pick Dr. Charles Aby as the favorite. He's got everything going for him.

LONG EXPERIENCE on the city council, support from outgoing Mayor John McInnis, and publicist Price Hall managing his campaign.

Paul Bettini, Joseph Filippo and any others who might seek the top job are going to have an uphill fight. If too many enter the race to split the votes, Dr. Aby should have it that much easier.

On March 19 in Sacramento, the California Democratic Council meets for its annual convention to elect officers.

JACK ROONEY, Larkspur attorney, is trying for CDC president. He's going up against a host of others, including another young attorney, formerly of Marin—boyish-looking Gerald Hill of San Francisco.

Seeking the vice presidency is Hans Schiller of Mill Valley, who has been the director of the First Congressional District Democratic caucus.

George McCabe of Santa Rosa, the Sonoma State College administrator, sounds as if he might be gunning for another battle with Congressman Clausen.

As executive director of the First Congressional District caucus, McCabe is keeping himself in the public eye.

THAT ASSEMBLY bill that would require large subdividers to set aside school sites for the original cost price may run into a legal snag.

The bill (AB 1238) was introduced at the suggestion of Novato school board member Bill Kirk.

Compensating the subdivider to the extent of "the original cost of the property to him" may not be just compensation, according to some legal authorities. The bill may have to be amended yet.

WE CAN understand why the Legislature gets bogged down with so many bills.

Every legislator tries to toss in a bill on any popular issue. The car smog device, for example, has a dozen bills shooting at it from all directions.

In Novato, the school trustees elected last November faced an immediate problem because the law read that three of them would have to run again next month.

AND SO THEY began tossing in bills to correct the technical flaw. One such bill (AB 19 by James Whetmore of Garden Grove) has become law. There are several others, including one by Sen. Jack McCarthy of San Rafael (SB 370), still in the hopper.

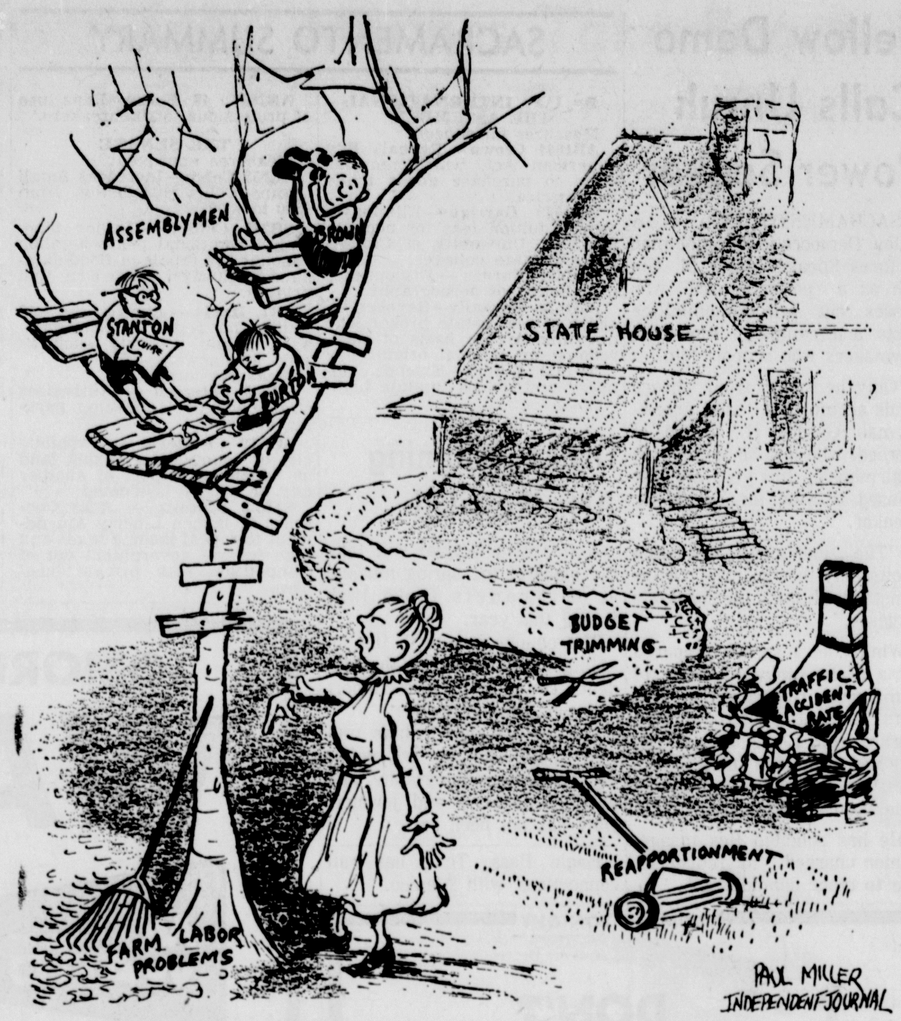

And local school officials are still wondering whether the passage of the Whetmore bill is sufficient, or whether other legislation is needed to bolster the first one.

It's all very confusing.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Eagle Killer Took A Gamble

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I don't know how the bulk of your readers feel about the plight of Leroy Martinelli, but I for one have had it. . . .

Just for the record . . . Mr. Martinelli is in the business of raising sheep—for sale and subsequent profit. As a businessman, he knows full well he alone bears the responsibility for the observance of all laws, regulations and restrictions governing the goods, products and/or services which, in the pursuit of this profitable venture, he has elected to offer.

However, it is quite evident that Mr. Martinelli preferred to gamble, and in complete conformity with the pattern of all tin-horn gamblers he screamed like a stuck pig when the cards turned against him. . . .

Three hundred dollars a month (maximum)—including board and rude lodgings—represents the cost of a sheeptender (otherwise known as a "shepherd") is all that is normally required to guide, guard and protect sheep from any and all natural predators. Mr. Martinelli has apparently seen fit to save this sum but, as pointed out above, has gambled and is not willing to pay the Piper. Sooner or later, the Piper must be paid.

Parents Blamed On Lima's Speech

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: Feb. 22 letter by Redwood Democratic Club officers.

If anyone criticized the Redwood High School Democratic Club for inviting Communist Mickey Lima to speak to their organization, the criticism was poorly directed. The blame for this extremely unwise action surely lies with those in authority at the school and with those school board members and parents who had advance notice of Mr. Lima's appearance and who failed to take the necessary action to prevent it.

Mr. Lima represents a subversive organization under foreign control, not a legitimate political party. . . .

Because I am a responsible parent, I teach my children about fire without resorting to the highly effective method of giving them matches. . . .

Children and teen-agers are not adults, and we abdicate our responsibility and endanger their future when we treat them as though they were.

Tam Unification Plan Supported

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In her Feb. 24 letter to you concerning the Tam High District unification, Mrs. Nightingale expresses a belief that if the district unifies, "our children will suffer under one huge district" and the result will be "even worse schooling than is now available." Since she goes on to say that "old Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public" (and that certainly pegs us) share this conviction with her, we'd like to have a chance to disagree!

Even before we came here five years ago, we had heard about the good schools in the Tamalpais District.

After moving to Marin, our criticism of the county was an impression (gained largely from reading the I-J) that there seemed to be too many independent small towns for such a relatively small area, resulting in costly duplications of community facilities, services and school systems. In the last few years, it's been encouraging to see these towns incorporate and their school districts move to unify themselves in the interests of efficiency and economy.

Meanwhile, the shrill voice of the misanthrope is heard in our land since progress, like growing up, is often a painful process. But, even though it does take time and perseverance, the children are worth it, so vote YES for the improvements you do want!

Land Speculator's Acts Held Negative

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It is agreed with "The Editor's Notebook" of last Saturday (Feb. 27) that the land speculator is not always an evil man. He is probably even a man of good will. But he doesn't make his money by doing anything. In fact, he makes his money by doing nothing. And he accelerates the process by seeing to it that no one else does anything on his land, either. No speculator can claim to have caused the increase on his land while he jealously holds its production at zero. Neither did he build the land that will reward him.

He is a strategist instead of a builder, one who has learned how to acquire values created by other people. For the increased value of land always comes from the pressure of people, and the work they do. How much is a lot worth in a land with no residents? How valuable is range land for building a city before men build roads and bridges and schools and houses and churches?

The speculator makes his money by restricting development until men grown desperate are willing to pay him for values they created in the first place by their very presence on the scene! The speculator's function is non-essential, possibly even wrong.

Piping Fan Poses Quiz About Picture

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I was scanning your paper for news of interest to myself, when I came across the article and picture of Eugene Wallace in your Feb. 26 paper.

Since I was a pipe band drummer for 12 years, I became interested in the article. . . .

One thing puzzles me though. Do people at the Peacock Gap Country Club really wear their jackets (men, that is) so they button on the opposite side; are the labels on the bottles reversed and does piper Wallace always play the pipes on his right shoulder when all other pipers, to the best of my knowledge, play them on their left?

Thank you for an interesting article. I'd like to hear Mr. Wallace sometime and reminisce a wee bit with him.

Sen. Dodd Voices President's Goals In Viet Nam Action

WASHINGTON—Leading Republicans and Democrats of national stature joined forces last November to back Thomas J. Dodd for re-election as U. S. senator from Connecticut.

Their wisdom in doing so is being quickly demonstrated.

The dividends to the nation are coming in threefold.

HE IS A SPECIAL breed. He is blunt, persuasive, clear-headed; has a passion for fact.

More than anyone else in Washington today, Senator Dodd has stemmed and reversed the unseemly tide among Democratic senators to push the United States to the conference table in order to get out of Viet Nam.

Obviously, the voices of the timid and the advocates of a policy of scuttle-and-run will not all be silenced. Nor will they remain silent all the time. For a while they appeared to be gathering a big head of steam. But Dodd, in two powerful speeches in a week, has given them pause. He is causing some of them to have second thoughts. And he is beginning to give President Lyndon B. Johnson some meaningful Democratic support along with the solid backing the White House has been getting from the Republicans from the beginning.

DODD HAS RIGHTLY warned U Thant that the U. N. can not long survive—or its secretary-general long remain in office—if he is going to use his position to apply a double standard of morality: Silence in the face of Communist aggression and criticism of the U. S. for defending a nation against aggression.

Egyptian forces are in Yemen against the plea of the U. N. Thant has never criticized the aggressor—President Nesser. Indonesian troops are in Malaysia with the avowed purpose of "crushing" it. Thant has never criticized the agressor — President Sukarno. But on Viet Nam Thant does not hesitate to take a partisan position. To President Johnson he says: Get your troops out of there.

Democratic Senator Dodd and Republican Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California are not leaving it to President Johnson to answer. His answer will be visible in acts, not in words.

THE WHITE HOUSE is now getting stronger support from both parties. Besides Republican leaders Everett Dirksen and Gerald Ford, Democratic Sens. Gale McGee of Wyoming, Russell Long of Louisiana, William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Rep. Clement Zablocki of Wisconsin have endorsed the president's firm course.

Of the many fallacies of those who urge that we negotiate-to-get-out, one of the most beguiling—and most fallacious—is the assumption that the U. S. is overextended and just can't possibly muster the power and resources to do the job.

We are showing continuous and spectacular growth in every index of national growth—population, wealth, industrial capacity, gross national product, scientific potential, agricultural output. The defense budget has begun to decline, taxes are reduced, foreign aid cut.

DODD ASKS HIS fellow congressmen and the nation: "Whether our victory be near or far, can we, dare we, turn away from the task before us, however frustrating or burdensome it may be?"

President Johnson's reaction to this speech was one of cordial and special appreciation. He has been waiting for these things to be said in the Senate.

Baker Witnesses Targets Of Probe

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The Justice Department's investigation of Bobby Baker is taking a strange twist.

Government attorneys assigned to the inquiry appear to be shifting it from the former Senate aide to the business activities of the two main witnesses against him.

THEY HAVE BEGUN checking the business accounts and tax records of Don Reynolds, Maryland insurance man, and Ralph Hill, former Washington, D. C., vending machine operator.

Both Reynolds and Hill were business associates of Baker while he was secretary of the Senate Democratic majority and on his way to becoming a millionaire.

According to information gathered by Sen. John Williams, R-Del., who has been working closely with Reynolds in the Baker inquiry, the Justice Department's turn-about followed Reynolds' appearance before the Senate Rules Committee in December.

DURING THAT closed-door session Reynolds' sensational testimony included party girl activities involving members of Congress, irregularities in missile procurement, and a $100,000 pay-off on an airplane contract.

Although no effort has been made to summon Reynolds before the federal grand jury probing the Baker case here, FBI and Internal Revenue agents have called at his business office and home to check his books and tax returns.

The Justice Department's investigation of Hill, who has been a cooperative witness, is almost as mysterious as that of Reynolds.

CONGRESSIONAL sources stress that the government's surveillance of Hill began after he obtained a $30,000 out-of-court settlement in his $300,000 federal damage suit against Baker.

This legal action, which triggered the Senate inquiry, grew out of Hill's business association with Baker while the latter was employed by the Senate.

Senator Williams, continuing to press his one-man probe of the Baker case, is watching these latest Justice Department developments with an eye toward making another speech on the Senate floor.

IF ATTY. GEN. Nicholas Katzenbach and/or the Senate Rules Committee decide to drop the Baker inquiry, aides say Williams plans to have the last word in a major Senate speech.

The rules committee closed its investigation last July, but was forced to reopen it when Williams produced new information on the Senate floor on an alleged kickback from the Washington, D. C., stadium construction project.

His next bombshell will be even more explosive.

THE U. S. AID mission in India is being kept completely in the dark on how that government is using more than $100 million in military equipment supplied by this country since the 1962 Communist Chinese "invasion."

Although the U. S. arms group has been functioning in India more than two years, Lt. Gen. John E. Kelley, commander, is still awaiting permission to visit the Chinese-Indian border to inspect the deployment of U. S. arms.

While Soviet military authorities are permitted to fly to the forbidden area near Leh, Ladakh, U. S. officers are restricted to New Delhi, although our weapons far outnumber those supplied by the Russians.

New Math Just Doesn't Seem To Add Up For This Father

WASHINGTON—There has been a great deal of discussion about American education in the last 10 years and everyone has come up with his theory as to why Johnny can't add. I know why Johnny can't add. It's because his parents can't do his homework.

In the old days before N. M. (New Math), a kid could bring home his homework and his parents would go over it with him, making corrections or suggestions, and giving encouragement when the going got rough. But today the parent is in the soup because the homework is so complicated that neither the kid nor his parent knows what is going on.

FOR EXAMPLE, the other day my daughter brought home a homework assignment.

"I have to subtract 179 from 202," she said.

"It's quite simple," I said, "you put the 202 over the 179."

"But what do I do with the 10?"

"What 10?"

"The 10 that goes next to the 202."

"I DON'T KNOW what 10 goes next to the 202. Let's subtract 179 from 202. Nine from two is three, and you carry one. Eight from zero is two. The answer is 23."

"We can't do it that way. We have to use a 10."

"Why 10?"

"Ten is a unit."

"I see. Well, the answer is still 23," I said.

"How do you know?"

"BECAUSE I TOOK nine from two and eight from zero."

"That's not the way to do it."

"Oh, yeah? Well, that's the way I did it."

"My teacher says you can't take nine from two."

"Why not?"

"Because you can't borrow from something you don't give back."

"WELL, I'M GOING to call your teacher and see how she subtracts 179 from 202."

I placed a call to my daughter's teacher and explained I was having a small problem with the homework she had assigned.

The teacher was very nice on the phone. "It's really quite simple," she said. "The two on the right-hand column is considered units of one. The zero in the center counts for zero 10s. The two in the left-hand column counts for 100s. Therefore, you have two 100s, zero 10s, and two ones."

"You're putting me on," I said.

"NOW TO SUBTRACT," she said. "Go to the 100s column and start regrouping. Two hundred will become 100. Therefore, 10 10s equal 100. Therefore, bring this 10 to the 10s column. Now you have 10 10s, but you still can't subtract in the units column. Therefore, regroup again. Now you only have nine 10s. Take 12 from the 10 and now bring it over to the ones column because 10 ones equal one. Now you have 12 ones. Do you understand?"

"What's there not to understand?" I said. "Can I ask you a very, very personal question?"

"Yes, of course."

"Is the answer 23?"

"IN THIS CASE it is, but it isn't necessarily 23. If you were working in units other than 10, it could be something else."

I hung up and started swallowing a whole bottle of aspirin, but my wife caught me in time. "How many aspirins did you take?"

"I took seven and then I took five, but don't ask me what it adds up to."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Ex-Supervisor Right! Cost Not $30,000, But Well Over $50,000

FUSSELMAN

LAST FRIDAY I said I would trace the route that brought us to the present situation. That will come on another Friday. Here is a quote from last Friday's column: "Now about your dollars: By the end of June . . . administrator activity will have cost, since its inception in 1956-57 (eight years), something like $700,000 or more. This includes a faulty recommendation to the board which cost in excess of $125,000." Well, in going over my material, I find the amount is $784,352.95 and the way it looks the word "plus" could be used. This quote is from last Friday, also: "Look at your tax bills and see if you think this operation has saved you money. That is what it was supposed to do."

I HAVE MANY tape recordings and transcripts of former years. The following is from the KTIM Sounding Board, prior to setting up the department. The then auditor: "I say the board of supervisors should know the situation as it exists today, compared with 1950, before you spend any money . . . consult the department heads and you can make a revaluation of the county, so that we can all be justified, if you want to put $30,000 in the tax rate." The then supervisor who was promoting the establishment of the department: "It WILL NOT cost $30,000." . . . Auditor: "It WILL cost $30,000." . . . Supervisor: "It WILL NOT cost $30,000 and I did a great deal of checking to find out what the other counties are paying their executive departments. It will cost $20,000." . . . Auditor: "The first year."

THE FIRST YEAR it cost $51,642.51. In 1963-64 it cost $105,099.36. This fiscal year, ending in June, $120,360 was budgeted. It will go way beyond that.

THERE WAS AN Associated Press story the other day from Mineola, N.Y. The Nassau County Board of Supervisors set the salary for an office at $17,500. The lady involved, a Miss Laura Davis, said it was an "outlandish increase," when they voted it and refused to take the job unless they cut the salary $7,000 to $10,500. The board finally gave in and voted the decrease.

SOME DIFFERENCE here: In 1957 the administrator received two raises; in 1959—three; in 1960—three; in 1962—two. His employment record before coming with the county is as follows: September, 1943, to February, 1944, War Production Board at San Francisco, administrative assistant; February, 1944, to August, 1944, National War Labor Board at San Francisco, wage analyst; August, 1944, to August, 1947, National Labor Relations Board at San Francisco, examiner; August, 1947, to September, 1955, State of California at San Francisco, deputy labor commissioner; September, 1955, to January, 1957, Kroeger and Associates at Manila, consultant.

TWO BOUQUETS to the chairman of the board: Wat Takeshita's column last Friday carried the story that, as chairman of the academic advisory committee for Bayview Schools at San Quentin, he "suggested several ways to cut bureaucracy and red tape and get to the meat of the matter." Then some days ago the I-J reported that he advised the board members to go to the department head or heads and get the story themselves first hand. Very good, my friend.

THERE ARE 91,000 local governmental entities in the United States. They employ 4,700,000 with a payroll of $25 billion—50 per cent larger than the federal government. Property taxes are up 300 per cent since World War II at the local level. That is twice the increase of federal taxes.

"IT LOOKS LIKE an early spring." So say Eleanor Dixon of Muir Beach who, perched on a crag above the ocean, records bird arrivals, wild flowers and other natural phenomena by date by book.

"Since early February cats have been catting steadily. Birds have started chasing each other and started increasing in song.

"The north-flying monarch butterflies have arrived and a few off-the-trail sea lions came back barking, and this is the first mating sign, too.

"THEN THE WILD flowers—the wild hyacinths and footsteps of spring. Starting Valentine's Day there was the red-throated loon. A rare bird, the greater scaups, the first time ever noticed here. There are about 3,000. We have several thousand surf scooters whose music is like an orchestra.

"Then there are the western grebes noted for blood-red eyes and high-broken cries, like the creak of an unoiled pulley block. This year they have invaded the water off Muir Beach in groups of 1,000 to 2,500. They belong to an order of diving birds, the most aquatic of all birds.

"They not only feed, sleep, talk and mate on water but are the only birds who carry their young pick-a-back under the surface. For the past month they have done courting dances on the whole bay.

"IT STARTS WITH pairs facing each other, stretching their swan necks out almost level with the sea. Then one flicks up some water with his head and the other does the same. This is repeated three of four times.

"Then they come side by side and touch the back of their heads to their backs several times. Then they scoot along the surface of the sea in unison together on their tail ends, necks stretched way out. Suddenly they dive. In a few seconds they surface back together."

THE OTHER DAY we learned that Mrs. David Bork of Mill Valley has reached the sound age of 90 and, though on crutches, still bakes bread every day.

"Every day but Sunday," she said. "I save Sunday for special baking of banana bread."

"I start in the morning before breakfast and don't get through until half past three or four."

ALMOST BLIND and unable to see to read, Mrs. Bork said, "I have to do something. The doctor said if I don't overdo it is a perfectly good thing and I have someone do my heavy housework."

She sits down on a tall stool to knead. She has a large table and mostly uses wet yeast.

"I give the bread to my friends," she advised. In earlier days she delivered bread to friends on foot, to those who were working or ill.

"I USE BETTY Crocker's canvas instead of a board. I fold the canvas and keep it folded when I'm not using it. You have to knead it. I let it raise three times." She eats one loaf in 10 days, just for breakfast, thin slices, toasted.

"Every once in a while I bake four-leaf clover rolls in one of those little pie tins. I bake four instead of three. It's been kind of famous, my four-leaf clover. I did it for luck. When I was a little girl, I was always looking for a four-leaf clover."

People pick up the bread, said Mrs. Bork, adding, "I can't seem to quit."

THE WONDERFUL world of children: Karen Pimental of Sausalito writes in her sister city essay just a people talk and are: "Every Friday there is a dance in the gym. We must dance differently than you, our fads are the Philly, the Jerk and the Twine. We'd love to see how you dance. . . . Our customs are more different than yours. . . . We have a Spanish program here also. It's a cinch for you but for five years I haven't been able to distinguish the 'ils' from the 'la's.' Seriously, I like Spanish but English is easier."

Today is Friday, March 5, the 64th day of 1965 with 301 to follow:

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

American author Howard Pyle was born on this date in 1853.

On this day in history:

In 1770, the British massacre occurred as British troops fired on civilians.

In 1933, election returns in Germany gave the Nazis and their nationalist allies 52 per cent of the seats in the Reichstag.

In 1962, Premier Nikita Khrushchev warned the Soviet government that the seven-year plan was in serious danger as a result of agriculture management.

A Thought for the Day — French leader Napolean Bonaparte once said: "From the sublime to the ridiculous is but a step."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Even Great Experts Make Foolish Bids When Playing

If you sometimes fear that you'll never stop making foolish mistakes at the bridge table, don't let it get you down.

You have very good company. Even the best players in the world are just as foolish at times.

Opening lead — ♡ K

When this hand was played four years ago in the world championship match between the United States and Argentina, one of the Americans stepped in with a bid of two diamonds on the South hand—if you call that a hand.

ITCHY FINGER

As it happened, West had an itchy trigger finger. He doubled two diamonds and proceeded to take South to the cleaners.

West led the king of hearts and switched to the queen of spades, covered by the king and ace. East returned his singleton club to the ace.

At a loss for a good line of play, South tried to cash the jack of spades. West ruffed and cashed the king of clubs, allowing East to discard a heart.

HEART ACE

West continued with the ace of hearts and a third heart, and East over-ruffed dummy.

East now led the 10 of spades, and South discarded his last low heart. When East continued with the nine of spades, South managed to win his second trick by ruffing with the queen.

Down to four trumps, South led the nine of diamonds to the ace. Back came a spade, and West over-ruffed declarer's low trump.

DOWN FIVE

West led another heart, and East ruffed with the seven to limit South to one more trick, with the king of trumps. Down five, for a loss of 900 points.

Remember this hand the next time you step into the auction with a mediocre hand when both opponents are bidding and your partner is silent.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one no-trump, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ J 3
♥ 7 4 3 2
♦ K Q 9 4 3
♣ A 2

Answer: Bid two clubs, the Stayman Convention.

If partner can bid two hearts, you will raise to four. If he bids anything else, you will bid three notrump.

Candidate Workshop Tomorrow

A workshop for school district trustee candidates will be held at the Civic Center tomorrow, starting at 8:30 a.m. in the board of supervisors' chambers.

Speakers during the morning session will be Arthur P. Coladarci, professor of education and psychology at Stanford University, on "The School Board and Educational Leadership"; David D. Ring, Reed School District trustee, on "The School Board and the Law"; Mrs. Doris Harnsberger, president of the San Anselmo School District board; and Joseph Goff, assistant superintendent, Dixie School District, on "The School Board and the Tax Dollar," and Albert R. Beardsley, superintendent of San Carlos Elementary School District, on "The School Board and the Educational Program."

At the afternoon session, there will be a presentation on "The role of the county superintendent of schools office."

The session is sponsored by the Marin County School Boards Assn., Marin Assn. of School Administrators and the county schools office.

Drunken Driver Is Fined $166

William Auriente Christiani, 38, or 79 Bayo Vista Way, San Rafael, was fined $166 Wednesday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Feb. 6 by California Highway Patrol on Highway 101.

Joseph Millnamow, 38, of 60 Mount View Avenue, Mill Valley, was sentenced to a 30-day jail term already served, also for drunken driving. He was arrested on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley on Jan. 26.

Alan Page Flavelle, 57, of 99 Cole Drive, Marin City, was fined $276 and given five days in county jail for drunken driving last Oct. 11. He was arrested by Corte Madera police and had a prior conviction.

Spring Officers

Spring officers of the Pedagogues, future teachers club at Sir Francis Drake High School, are headed by Shirley Glandon, principal; Eugene Kramer, vice principal; Carolyn DeFay, secretary-treasurer, and Pat Jensen, corresponding secretary.

Job Placements Down For Month

Job placements made through the San Rafael office of the State Department of Employment last month were 230 below the January figure of 593.

But the 363 total was still nine more than February last year and the increase has been attributed to the recruitment of about 30 sales people for a new store in the area.

Unemployment benefit payments also decreased to 1,398 a week compared to 1,545 a week in January. Last month's dry weather, said manager Edward W. Ayer, allowed laid-off construction men to return to work.

Terra Linda's Rec Program On Agenda

The Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District board will discuss the district recreation program at 8 p.m. next Wednesday at the recreation center.

The board was scheduled to discuss the program Wednesday night, but the meeting was cancelled for lack of a quorum.

Rotary Talk Set

Four foreign students will speak on "World Understanding Week" at a meeting of the San Rafael Rotary Club Monday at 12:15 p.m. in Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael. The students are from the College of Marin, San Anselmo Theological Seminary, Dominican Convent and Golden Gate Seminary.

Gold Reserve Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed into law yesterday a bill which has the effect of making nearly $5 billion of gold available to meet U.S. monetary requirements overseas.

The measure ended a requirement that the Federal Reserve System maintain a gold reserve equal to 25 per cent of the deposits it holds from member banks.

A similar gold reserve still must be held to back up the paper money issued by the reserve system.

Sport Goods Stolen

FUTURE WATER DISTRICT COMPLEX

Service facilities at the Marin Municipal Water District Corporation Yard in Corte Madera should look like this when maintenance shops and warehouses are completed in November. Construction started in January will add 27,000 square feet of building area west of the MMWD main offices. The addition was designed by Roger Ranuio, architect. H. J. Degenkolb is structural engineer; Buonnacorsi and Murray are mechanical engineers for the project. General contractor is William H. McDevitt Co.

Veteran Beautician Relocates Parlor

Jackson's Beauty Salon, located at 80 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, for more than 18 years, has opened at its new location at 34 Sunnyside Avenue.

Owner Jackson G. Sauers said his object in moving is to be able to work alone and have a smaller place. Shop hours will remain the same.

In-Flight Movies

NEW YORK (UPI)—Trans World Airlines has offered to drop its movie entertainment for passengers on international flights to which some foreign airlines object if that will enable the 17 international carriers to get together and agree on a fare structure by April 1. Braniff Airways has raised similar objections to in-flight movies on domestic airlines.

Travel Agent Moves Mill Valley Office

Marin Travel Center has moved in Mill Valley from 29 Miller Avenue to 20 Sunnyside Avenue.

The business, owned by Ben Sawtelle, had been at the previous location three and one-half years. Sawtelle is assisted by Mrs. Lyn Beaumont, travel agent.

Sales Exceeded

DETROIT (UPI)—Ford and General Motors' Chevrolet Division both exceeded year-ago sales in the final third of February, despite unfavorable weather.

Chrysler Sales

DETROIT — Retail sales of Chrysler Corp. passenger cars were 107,582 units in February, a daily rate of 4,483 units.

MARIN AGAIN HAS INCREASE IN INCOMES

Average income per family in Marin County has increased from $10,520 last year to $10,975 this year, according to advance figures from "Sales Management's" survey of buying power.

The figures show that the total income in the county increased from $556,500,000 last year to $606,906,000 this year.

During the same period, average family income in San Rafael rose from $10,224 to $10,776.

The county-wide increase in total buying power represents 8 per cent. Population during the same time rose 4.1 per cent.

Dividend Declared

OAKLAND — Kaiser Steel Corp.'s board of directors has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 36½ cents per share on the preferred stock and a dividend of $1.4375 per share on the 5¾ per cent convertible preference stock, both payable on March 31 to stockholders of record at the close of business on March 15.

Cadillac Sales

DETROIT—Sales records for Cadillac hit a new February high of 18,161.

Early Losses Shaved

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed sharply lower in active trading today.

However, many early heavy losses were shaved.

The decline was paced by the international oils but they made somewhat of a recovery late in the session.

Steels, motors and chemicals also declined. Aircrafts were mostly ahead.

General Motors was off nearly a point in a motors group that was generally off fractions.

Gains of a point or more were posted by U.S. Smelting and Eastern Air Lines.

Du Pont lost more than 2 points, pulling down the averages.

Volume was estimated at 6.3 million shares compared with 7.31 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

International oils paced the decline but their losses were reduced as the session wore on. Jersey Standard, down more than 3 points at one stage, shaved its loss to a point and a half. Royal Dutch was down a point and Texaco about a half.

Hupp, which was delayed in opening bekause of an accumulation of orders, appeared headed for the top of the most active list by a wide margin.

Golds were strong with Dome and American South African up more than a point and Campbell Red Lake ahead by half a point.

Losses of a point or more were taken by Amerada, Calgon, CBS, Disney and Motorola.

U.S. Steel, Republic and Jones & Laughlin eased to fractional losses.

General Motors dropped more than a point. Anaconda and Kennecott were down about a point.

Prices declined in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed and treasuries declined.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Car Used In Business Is A Deductible Item

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

If you are in business and your auto is used exclusively for business purposes, the cost of its operation is allowable as a deduction in Schedule C, Form 1040.

Wikel

If you are an employee and are required to use your car entirely in your work, you may deduct the entire cost of its operation. Such expenses include the cost of gasoline, oil, repairs, garage rent, insurance, depreciation, interest on the purchase of the car, taxes, licenses, etc.

If both personal and business use is made of your auto, you must apportion your expenses between business travel and personal travel. Suppose you are a salesman and drove your car 20,000 miles during the year. 8,000 miles for business travel and 12,000 miles for personal. Only 8,000/20,000 or 40 per cent of the total cost of operating your car may be claimed as a business or employment expense.

Under Revenue Proceedure 64-10, you are no longer required to keep detailed records of your automobile expenses. Just keep a record of the business use of your car. You can deduct a standard mileage rate of 10 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles and seven cents per mile for miles over 15,000 miles in each year.

The miles must be for business use and you must have a record of them.

Also, under Revenue Proceedure 64-15 you can deduct a standard mileage rate of five cents per mile for the use of your car to secure medical care or for charitable contributions where automobile expense qualifies as deductible as a medical expense or as a charitable contribution.

These standard mileage rates are in lieu of all other deductions for automobile costs or expense in connection with business use, or medical expense use, or a charitable contribution use of the car.

Certain non-business auto expenses are deductible if you itemize your deductions on page 2, Form 1040, even though you use your automobile entirely for personal purposes.

These expenses include: Gasoline taxes — California seven cents per gallon; state and local sales taxes; interest on auto loans; casualty and theft losses not compensated for by insurance or otherwise over $100.

Caution. If you have used your car partly for business and partly for personal travel, and if you itemize your deductions, be sure that you list on page 2 of your return only that part of the interest, taxes, etc., which were not claimed as a part of traveling or transportation expense elsewhere on your return. An expense may be deducted only once.

Car pools. The cost of repairs, gas and similar items in connection with an automobile used in a car pool to and from work is a personal expense and is not deductible. Amounts received from the passengers for such services are not included in income except to the extent such amounts exceed the expenses.

Fines and collateral for violation of traffic laws or other laws and regulations are not deductible.

Installation Dinner Slated Tomorrow

Members of the six-county Associated Heating and Sheet Metal Contractors will hold an installation dinner at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Sonoma Joe's restaurant in Petaluma.

Among new officers to be installed are S. Stanley Knoles of San Anselmo, president, and Donald E. Sederberg of Mill Valley, vice president. Other new officers are John Carnohan, secretary-treasurer, and Charles Allen, Paul Coutier, Glenn Klineman and Dave Milano, directors. National association president Marlowe Hodge and past presidents and charter members of the North Bay group will be special guests.

Mission To Get Pear Tree Again

A pear tree will again grow at Mission San Rafael Arcangel, and it will be just like the original trees planted there soon after the mission was established in 1817. In fact, it is growth from an original tree.

The planting ceremony will be at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday at the mission. The tree will be dedicated to the memory of Msgr. Daniel J. McAlister, late administrator of the church.

Donating the tree is Karl Untermann, owner of the West End Nursery, San Rafael. He took several grafts from a tree his uncle, Richard Lohrmann, started in 1929. Lohrmann started the tree from a graft he took from a pear in the original orchard when it was being cleared.

Untermann, who has taken several slips from his uncle's tree, plans also to give one of his pears to the city to be planted at the new city hall.

High School Library Furniture Bids Opened

American Seating Co. was the apparent low bidder at $37,873.71 for furnishing chairs, tables and counters for the library at San Rafael High School now under construction.

A second bid opened yesterday afternoon was $39,997.19 by Remington-Rand. Estimate on the furniture cost was 35,000.

Bids were opened yesterday at the city schools office on this and other equipment.

On all other equipment, there was only one bidder in each category. They were: Teachers' cabinets for the San Rafael High addition (estimated at $15,500), Educators Furniture Supply Co., $15,731.90; chairs, Anco Sales, $5,538; steel lockers (estimated at $15,000), Republic Steel Co., $16,350; kitchen cabinets (estimated at $1,900), St. Charles Kitchens, $2,829.20.

Contracts may be awarded at next Tuesday's meeting of the San Rafael Board of Education.

Student Mission Conference Opens

A three-day student mission conference, the fifth to be held at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, Strawberry, opened at the seminary at 2 p.m. today.

The meeting, bringing students from throughout the country, includes seminars on foreign and home missions, careers overseas, campus evangelism and mission theology.

Stinson Beach Offices Move

Office of the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District, Stinson Beach County Water District, Bolinas Harbor District, and Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce as well as Ruth Miller's Real Estate have moved from former location on Shoreline Highway near Calle Del Mar to the Grand Hotel, Stinson Beach.

Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, who does secretarial work for the four organizations, holds forth in the new office, which is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and closed Tuesdays. The office was in the old location about 20 years, according to Mrs. Greene.

MARIN PITCHING WHIZ GETS BONUS CONTRACT

Steve Miller, former Drake High School pitching whiz, has signed a bonus contract with the Houston Astros, it was announced yesterday.

Miller, 19, was an all-league hurler for the Pirates in 1963 when he was a junior. Because he transferred to Drake from Lincoln High in San Francisco, he lost a year of eligibility and had to sit out the '64 season when he was a senior. He was graduated from Drake last June.

Joe Anselmo, manager of the Billings-Hutchison Builders semi-pro baseball team and part-time scout with the Houston club of the National League, announced the signing. He and Houston west coast scout Bill Wight signed the

Terrell 12-5 Pick Over Machen

By MURRAY ROSE

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen, a couple of contenders hidden in the shadow of Cassius Clay, clash tonight in a 15-rounder for the World Boxing Association's version of the heavyweight championship.

Terrell, a 6-foot-6, guitar-strumming boxer who has won 12 straight fights, is a 12-5 choice over the 6-foot Californian, who was beaten in his last fight by former champion Floyd Patterson.

Promoter Irving Schoenwald is hoping for a crowd of about 7,000 and a gross gate of $60,000 for the International Amphitheatre.

The arena seats 10,400 and is scaled for $102,000. So far, the fight has created world-wide apathy.

The bout will be shown on closed circuit television in several cities, but none in northern California. There will be no radio broadcast. Fight time is 7:30 p.m., PST.

This is a title fight of sorts because the WBA stripped Clay of title recognition for signing a return match with Sonny Liston. This violated the WBA's rule against return title bouts w out special permission. Liston was dropped out of the rankings after another one of his brushes with the law.

The WBA first named Terrell and Cleveland Williams of Houston to meet for the title. But Williams was shot in a scrape with the police near Houston and was fired out of the contention.

So Machen, who was ranked fifth after losing a 12-rounder to former champion Patterson at Stockholm last July 5 was boosted to No. 4 and into the title fight with Terrell. Now he is ranked No. 3.

New York still recognizes Clay, who meets Liston in Boston May 25, as champion. The British Boxing Board of Control considers the Terrell-Machen fight "little more than a joke" as far as the world title is concerned.

The European Boxing Union does not recognize Clay as champion but says the Chicago fight is nothing more than a preliminary since it holds the winner must fight Patterson.

Patterson, meanwhile, is itching for a shot at Clay and later with Liston, the man who knocked him out twice in the first round.

Terrell, 25, has a 36-4 record, including 18 knockouts. He was stopped once, by Williams in the seventh round at Houston, April 3, 1962. Since then he has swept to 12 victories and is No. 1 in the WBA ratings.

The gangling Chicagoan has a lancing left that stings and piles up points and a right that's great for shaving.

Machen, 32, has been fighting pro for 10 years with more ups and downs than a yo-yo. His record is 47-5-2, including 29 knockouts. His only knockout loss was in the first round by Ingemar Johansson in Sweden, Sept. 14, 1958.

Until his decisive defeat by Patterson in Stockholm last July 5, Machen had gone unbeaten in 11 straight fights. The Redding, Calif. contender's record is studded with defeats when the pressure was on.

"All Terrell can do is jab," said Machen. "And he can't win that way against me. I don't care how big he is. I fought a lot of big men but I never found one so tall I couldn't reach his chin."

"Machen will see so many left hands he'll think there are two other people in the ring," said Terrell. "He'd better not forget bout my right, either."

This probably will go all the 15 rounds. Scoring will be by the five-points must system. The winner of each round gets five points, the loser four or less.

HANLEY

CASA GRANDE, Ariz.—Carl Hubbell refuses to live in the past but occasionally the Hall of Famer lapses into a nostalgic mood. Such an occasion arose the other day as Hubbell watched Frank Shellenback and Larry Jansen instructing the 1965 crop of rookie Giant pitchers.

"I was scared stiff as a rookie," Hubbell recalled. "I was overwhelmed at the thought of being in the big leagues. Ever since I was a kid in knee pants I thought major leaguers were perfect, not capable of error.

"I couldn't relax until I found out otherwise. I thought if I made a mistake I would be shipped out. Once I got over such notions I was all right. Tenseness left me and I became loose and natural."

Since the great southpaw was in a reminiscent mood, he warmed to memories of memorable moments during his 16-year career on the mound for the Giants.

There was his no-hitter in 1929 over the Pirates, a 1-0 18-inning victory over the Cardinals in 1933, his dazzling performance in the 1934 All-Star game, and, of course, that string of 46-⅓ consecutive scoreless innings which still is a National League record.

Hubbell didn't hesitate in rating his 18-inning win of 1933 over the 1929 no-hitter. "I had an 11-0 cushion in the no-hitter," he said. "There was pressure all the way in the 18-inning affair."

In the 1934 All-Star game Hubbell struck out Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Foxx, Al Simons and Joe Cronin in order with his legendary screwball.

"I had it working pretty good that day," said Hubbell. Whereupon Garry Schumacher, the publicity man of the Giants, interrupted to say: "It sank out of sight three times on Foxx and each time he swung he thought he had a homer."

Hubbell now is director of the Giant farm system and he is proud of the number of promising players the farm system has developed for the big team.

"We can teach youngsters most things about baseball," said Hubbell, "but one thing we can't give them is skill. If a youngster hasn't got that there isn't an awful lot we can do for him."

Finals Tonight In Cage Tourney

Neil Cummins and Kent eighth grade teams will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the finals of the Redwood elementary basketball tourney being held at Redwood High School. Ross and Hall schools will meet in the game for third place at 7 p.m.

In last night's action, Hall, led by Skip Corsini with 10 points, walloped Del Mar 47-13. Curt Schafer scored 9 of Del Mar's total.

In the other game, Neil Cummins beat Ross 38-22. Jim Peters scored 9 points for N.C. and Josh Collins hit 8 for Ross.

Cepeda May Miss Opener

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP)—Orlando Cepeda might have to miss the San Francisco Giants' Cactus League opener one week from tomorrow against the Cleveland Indians.

Cepeda, whose .304 was the top Giant average of 1964, can't do anything but walk for a while.

"I walk hard and long," said Cepeda, "then I walk some more. Pretty soon I will run. My weight (227) is all right so I'll be ready when I have to be."

There have been no major injuries during the first week of camp. But Willie McCovey apparently hasn't been helped by special baseball shoes designed to relieve painful discomfort caused by a congenital condition in his metatarsal arches and toes.

ALWAYS HURT

"I'll just have to learn to live with it," said McCovey, who said his feet had something to do with his homer production drop from 44 in 1963 to 18 in 1964. "They're hurting, they're always going to hurt, and that's just that."

McCovey also injured his left hand swinging against Juan Marichal in practice yesterday. Something snapped and McCovey ended with his fist in ice.

Cepeda was unworried about his leg and knee, which he said were first injured in 1961 in a collision with Los Angeles Dodger catcher John Roseboro.

"My knee feels okay, but the doctors say I shouldn't rush and hurt it again," said the Puerto Rican strongman. "I'd like to swing the bat and hit the ball, but I have to wait a while."

Meanwhile, Cepeda is doing weight exercises to gain strength in the leg.

Reliever Bob Shaw remains in Jupiter, Fla., still reluctant to take a big cut in his $38,000 salary. According to General Manager Chub Feeney, Shaw and the Giants still are far apart as ever.

Miramonte Team Hands Giants 62-52 Setback

I-J Special Report

GRIDLEY—"The bubble broke," were the words of Redwood coach Dick Hart describing last night's loss in the opening round of the Gridley Invitational basketball tourney.

His Redwood Giant cagers downed by Miramonte High School of Orinda, 62-52, snapping the Larkspur school's 12-game victory streak.

But things could be worse. Take tonight's schedule for instance. Redwood will have to go against Ells of Richmond which lost last night to El Camino of Sacramento, 58-56. Ells, you remember, was the winner of last year's Tournament of Champions in Berkeley. That Redwood-Ells game will start at 5 p.m.

In other first round games yesterday, Oakland beat Washington of Fremont 59-41, and Montgomery of Santa Rosa topped Gridley 69-44.

Redwood's game last night was close throughout the first three quarters until the Giants lost their height. Redwood forward Tom Bly (6-4) and center Chuck Myer (6-4) fouled out of the game with four minutes to go. Then Miramonte coasted home to victory.

Redwood got off to a lousy start start, not hitting a single point while Miramonte scored 10. The hot-shooting quint from Orinda made six of its first seven shots from the floor.

By the time the first quarter was over, Redwood picked up some ground and trailed by seven, 18-11. After a good second quarter by Redwood, the Giants found themselves behind by only one point, 27-26 at halftime.

The game see-sawed back and forth in the third quarter with the lead changing hands several times. It was Miramonte 37-35 at the three-quarter mark. Then midway in the final period, Bly, the leading rebounder for Redwood with 12, fouled out, along with Meyer. The other front line man, forward Don Detrick (6-2), had four fouls called on him before the game was over.

High scorer for Redwood was guard Russ Smith with 15 points.

Redwood had 19 fouls called and Miramonte 22. The Giants made 17 of 59 floor shots for 29 per cent, below their average of 38 per cent. In the free throw department, Redwood made 18 of 29 (62 per cent) and Miramonte meshed 20 of 27 (74 per cent).

Miramonte	18	9	10	25—62
Redwood	11	15	9	17—52

Miramonte scoring: Tim Shellhorn, 2-4-8; John Riddell, 6-1-13; Al Barkley, 1-1-3; Dennis Unruh, 1-4-6; Mike Anderson, 5-5-15; John Johnson, 6-4-16. Totals: 21-20-62.

Redwood scoring: Don Detrick, 0-4-4; Tom Bly, 3-4-10; Bruce McGee, 1-2-4; Chuck Meyer, 2-4-8; Charlie Davis, 6-3-15; Russ Smith, 4-1-9; Kevin Wilson, 1-0-2. Totals: 17-18-52.

Baseball Tryouts

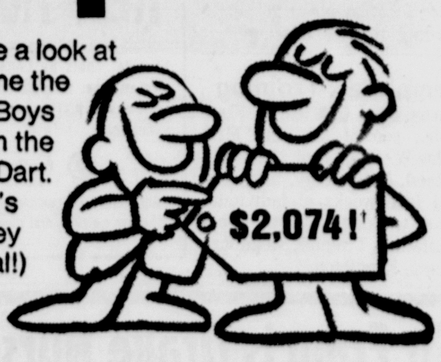

Final sign-ups and tryouts for the Central Marin Pony League will be held tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. on the Redwood High School diamond. All youngsters 13 and 14 who try out are assured of playing on one of the teams, said Jack Gray, players agent. Boys who haven't signed up yet should bring a parent, said Gray.

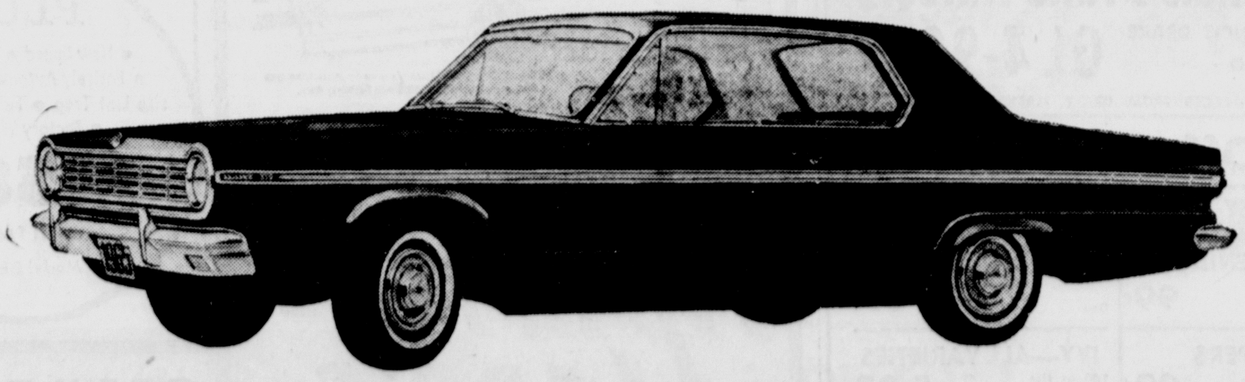

Sailing Lectures Slated For Women

A new series of one-hour lectures on sailing for women will be offered on the Sausalito waterfront, starting next Tuesday. For registration information, women should get in touch with Mrs. Grove Nooney of 77 Molino Avenue, Mill Valley.

EX-CARDINAL GREAT PEPPER MARTIN DIES

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — Pepper Martin, dare-devil third baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals' famed Gas House Gang of the early 1930s who almost single-handedly beat the Philadelphia Athletics in the 1931 World Series, died today of a heart attack at the age of 63.

Martin, known as the Wild Horse of the Osage, was a minor league manager after his playing days and in recent years was a coach for the Tulsa Oilers of the Texas League. At one time he was a deputy sheriff of McAlester and when he was 44 years old got a job as place-kicker for the old Brooklyn Dodgers pro football team.

In the 1931 World Series, Martin pounded out 12 hits, tying a Series record, had a Series batting average of .500, hitting four doubles and a homer, and stole five bases.

PROBLEMS, PROBLEMS . . .

Herman's Waist, Casey's Thieves

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Spring training isn't even a week old and already worry lines are furrowing the brows of some managers.

Baseball isn't what's bothering the San Francisco Giants' Herman Franks, or Casey Stengel, patriarch of the New York Mets, or Al Lopez, skipper of the Chicago White Sox.

Franks is concerned by his waistline, Stengel is bothered by thieves and Lopez is worried about, of all things, the National Basketball Association standings.

Franks, rookie manager of the Giants, stepped on the scales at the club's Casa Grande, Ariz., training base and flashed a wide smile when the arrow pointed to 210 pounds.

"I got it made," he grinned. "It will be a breeze from here on in."

Franks, who scaled 235 while coaching the Giants last year, has a bet with club President Horace Stoneham and other members of the Giant hierarchy that he can slim down to 200 by opening day.

Stengel, the Glendale, Calif., bank executive who spends his summers directing the Mets, got word from his wife, Edna, that three burglars were arrested after allegedly trying to break into the Stengel home.

Mrs. Stengel called police when she heard noises at a rear door and Glendale officers arrested the three.

The manager heard about the attempt at the Mets' St. Petersburg, Fla., camp. Stengel said he was relieved that nothing had been taken.

"I was afraid they had stolen that big oil painting of Yogi Berra," he said. "The gold frame is worth a lot of money. I value it at $20,000 in my head. It has great sentimental value."

Berra, the Mets' new coach, had no comment.

Meanwhile, the Mets signed Charlie Smith, leaving only outfielder Joe Christopher still unsigned. The Chicago White Sox inked pitcher Joel Horlen and are missing only hurlers Juan Pizarro and Dave DeBusschere. And therein lies Lopez' problem with the NBA standings.

DeBusschere, a promising right-hander who was 15-8 with Indianapolis last year, happens to be a basketball player during the winter. In fact, he's the player-coach for the Detroit Pistons of the NBA.

Now ordinarily that would be much of a problem but this season the Pistons are making overtures at an NBA playoff berth. If DeBusschere's club makes it, his arrival at the White Sox' Sarasota, Fla., camp would be delayed considerably more than the week or two he usually misses. And that could pose a problem for Senor Lopez.

Venturi Quits Tourney

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Ken Venturi, the game San Francisco golfer who has been bothered since the Bing Crosby tournament with a circulatory ailment, pulled out of the Pensacola Open today.

Venturi said it was too cold to play, adding that the weather bothered his hands.

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, Doug Sanders, Kel Nagle and Dave Marr have two things in common: They carded four-under-par 68s for first round honors in the $65,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament and they're praying for warm weather.

Winds were icy and gusting during yesterday's morning rounds and the temperature dropped to the 30s.

Nicklaus had six birdies in his round, but made the turn at par 36 on the 6,142-yard par 72 Pensacola Country Club course.

Dons 'Shadow' Bruins For NCAA Showdown

By MICHAEL HUDSON
United Prss International

When U.C.L.A. meets Southern California tonight in basketball, the most interested spectator will be assistant coach Phil Vukicevich of the University of San Francisco.

Vukicevich will take copious notes on the Bruins in their weekend battles against rugged southern California on the assumption that the Bruins and Dons are headed for a showdown finals battle March 13 in the western regional NCAA tournament at Provo, Utah.

Both teams have clinched their league titles and might be ripe for upset in this weekend's final round of regular season action. U.S.F. will be at Pepperdine and Loyola.

At Provo, the Dons first will face an at-large team to be determined Monday in Lubbock, Tex., when Colorado State plays a team yet to be named. U.C.L.A. must take on Brigham Young of the Western Athletic Confernce.

NCAA tournament action one level down gets going tonight at Seattle when CCAA champ Fresno State and independent hotshot Nevada Southern clash in the first-round playhof the Pacific Coast College Division tournament. Boht teams were 19-6 for the season.

Seattle Pacific (20-6) meets Far Western Conference champ San Francisco State (15-10) in the second game.

The winners clash Saturday night and the survivor heads for next week's national tournament at Evansville, Ind.

In other cage activity this weekend, Stanford Cals on California tonight and hosts the Bears Saturday afternoon. The Indians are 7-5 in conference play and could tie or surpass Southern California, 8-4, who must battle the nationally second-ranked Bruins.

Mercury Fleet Opens Season

The Sausalito Mercury fleet will open its season Sunday with a pair of races on Richardson Bay, with 20 to 25 boats expected.

There will be two races over a course between five and seven miles. First race will start at 11:30 a.m., and the second at 2:30 p.m. There are 33 boats registered in the fleet this year.

HAGEN'S Putting Theory

WALTER HAGEN HAD A PUTTING TOUCH "LIKE A CAT'S WHISKER" AS BOBBY JONES DESCRIBED IT. HE RECOMMENDED PICKING A SPOT BETWEEN THE BALL AND THE HOLE AND PUTTING BOLDLY FOR IT. ROLLING PAST THE SPOT, THE BALL WILL BE UP THERE FOR AN EASY SECOND PUTT—AND OFTEN CARRY RIGHT INTO THE HOLE.

Frustrated Tars End Sad Season

College of Marin's frustrating basketball season comes to a close tonight when the Tars host Napa Junior College at 8 o'clock in the Kentfield gym.

Marin was riding on the crest of an 18-game winning streak and was leading the Golden Valley Conference standings with a 7-0 record back on Feb. 19. But then disaster struck a cruel blow.

Successive losses to Santa Rosa, Sierra, Siskiyous and Shasta dropped the Mariners out of contention and their season record fell to 20 wins and 6 losses. It's a very good overall record, but those four straight losses take all the impact from the thing.

Marin was ranked No. 8 in the state, but now is 17th, one behind the Santa Rosa Bear Cubs who have clinched the conference title. Contrary to popular belief a month ago, it will be Santa Rosa, not Marin, in the state J.C. tournament next week in San Mateo.

Marin's downfall? One guard and no fast break.

The Tars' big weapon all season was their fast break, played to perfection by guards Jay Johnson and Brad Busch. But at semester break, Busch, the Tars' leading scorer, had to step out of the picture because his eligibility ran out.

Barry Hachmyer stepped into the vacated guard slot and did a good job. Marin kept up its hectic pace and beat Napa 84-61. When Hachmyer hurt his shoulder in a street fight and couldn't play the next few games, the Tars still were able to wallop Yuba 96-59.

But for the next four games, coach Cal Riemcke couldn't find the needed speed for the second guard spot and Johnson couldn't do it all himself. He had to go with a forward in a guard position and sacrificed the fast break. Without it, Marin lost four in a row. It's all too frustrating.

Johnson had passed the 1,000 point mark in career scoring at College of Marin and joins the select group of Lynn Livie and Busch, the only Mariners to score more than 1,000 markers. Johnson hit for 517 points last year and already has 514 this season for a 1,031 total.

"We're always sorry to see a last game come up for a boy like Johnson," said Riemcke about Jay playing his final Tars game tonight.

Marin's starters tonight will be Jim Halm (6-7) at center, Fred Arnold (6-7) and Bill Brody (6-2) at forwards, and Johnson (6-0) and Hachymer (5-11) at guards.

We congratulate

Each year, a few of the outstanding individuals in the Bankers Life Nebraska sales organization distinguish themselves by both the size and quality of their production accomplishments.

In their honor, and in order to accord them proper recognition, the home office maintains the Wall of Fame on which the names and photographs of these outstanding men are displayed. Standards for appointment to the Wall of Fame are most exacting, and only highly qualified members of our sales organization achieve this distinction.

We congratulate Mr. Santos on attaining the Wall of Fame distinction for the second consecutive year and are proud of the high degree of professional competence and integrity with which he serves his clients.

youngster to the bonus contract Wednesday night. Terms were not disclosed.

Miller, a hard throwing right-hander, has been pitching for Anselmo's team in winter baseball for the past three months, and has developed into quite a prospect.

In his last 19 innings of mound duty, the 6-1, 185-pound hurler has struck out a total of 43 batters. That comes out to 43 whiffs out of 57 outs posted by Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Culver Miller of 18 Woodside Drive, San Anselmo.

LONG LOOK

Anselmo has been using Miller for about three innings per game, giving him a close, long look. And during this time he has helped pitch in two no-hitters. He has won five games out of the current nine-game win streak for the Builders.

Anselmo said he and Wight both feel Steve can go a long way in professional ball. "He has a definite shot to make the major league," said Anselmo. "He throws really hard and has a good curve ball."

Miller is the third player off the Builder roster signed by Anselmo. The other two are Jerry Ard of Fairfax and Ron Cole of Mill Valley, both of whom signed for bonuses also.

All three will report to the Houston training camp at Cocoa Beach, Fla., in a couple of weeks. Miller will probably remain at Cocoa Beach and play in the Florida State League for the Astros' Class A farm club.

MARIN J.C. BASEBALL TOURNEY WASHED OUT

College of Marin's baseball tournament has drowned before ever taking its first breath of life.

The tourney, including Marin, Napa Junior College, San Francisco City College and Diablo Valley, was scheduled to begin today at Albert Park in San Rafael, but rains put a stop to that, flooding the field.

Marin coach Ed Grimm said that San Francisco City College's coach was trying to find two diamonds open tomorrow in S.F. If a pair of diamonds are available, a "double-doubleheader" will be held tomorrow.

Marin and Diablo Valley will play in one game and Napa and SFCC in the other. Winners and losers will be matched in the nightcaps.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Melinda Bailey Seeks S.F. Title

Melinda Magly Bailey, girls physical education teacher at Redwood High School, will take on San Francisco's Jan Ferraris for the championship of the San Francisco Women's Golf Tournament tomorrow morning at Harding Park.

It will be the fourth straight year for the two to meet in the finals, Miss Ferraris winning the previous three matches. Tomorrow's match will be for 36 holes.

Mrs. Wardlaw Is Tourney Winner

STEVENS

A few days ago I had a phone call from L. C. "Len" Shepherd of San Rafael. In the conversation that followed, I learned that Len is one of the leading lights of the Richmond Gun Club. His hope was to interest all persons of any age or sex to participate in shooting competition. No matter whether their hobby was stalking live game or competing in target shooting. Would I devote a few lines in a column to that end.

I am happy to do that. Target practice is a wonder type of recreation.

LEN SENT ME a lot of material from which I learned that target competition is not confined to any one city, town or county, but the Richmond shoots have brought participants from a radius of over 100 miles. I note the names and addresses of "Targeteers" from Marin County, Oakland, South County; from as far away as Calistoga (one of club's committee men hails from here) and as close as El Cerrito (another committeeman lives in El Cerrito).

Shepherd sent a long list of names; so long that even in 4 or 6 point type it would be impossible to set them down in the space allowed for this column.

Very fine trophies are awarded the winners in the many classes of each shoot. Every precaution is taken to avoid any accident. "It is the golden rule of the club to aid every shooter, novice or otherwise, to gain a greater degree of accuracy," wrote Shepherd. I understand there are no restrictions whatso-ever. Marksmen of all ages, sex, creed and nationality are welcomed.

Sooo, shooters move over. Let the anglers have their innings. First, Congratulations to the Reel Rod Senders group who went "sharking" last Sunday. George Mura reported a very successful derby, with one duo having to quit through pure exhaustion hauling the critters in. Who? Why Joe Ciriello and Stan Francis (each caught 22 sharks, half leopards and half sand sharks. One notable catch was made by Weldon Birch's landing of a thresher shark weighing 65 pounds. (That is only 16 pounds lighter than the world record of 81 pounds, 8 ounces caught by E. G. Volpe of South County, August 2, 1958. Volpe landed his thresher on 20-pound test monofiliment line.

WEEKEND FORECAST: Salmon prospects: good, north of Gate. Rockfish very good Santa Cruz, Farallones. Striped bass good to excellent both sides of San Pedro Bay from China Camp to Carquinez Bridge. Some bass in Delta Region. Flounder good to excellent San Pablo Bay, lower Suisun Bay, Sturgeon fair to good San Pablo Bay back of Rock Wall. Black bass, crappies, cats and bluegills, fair to good, Clear Lake and Berryessa Lake.

RUSSELL DAMOS JR. of San Anselmo was a double winner in the last reported week of the Schenley Sportsmen's Club striped bass contest, catching two hefty stripers in San Pablo Bay.

One of his stripers weighed 23 pounds, 14 ounces, and the other tipped the scales at 24 pounds, 8 ounces.

August Frank of San Rafael was the only other Marin County winner for the week ending last Sunday. He caught a striper weighing 29 pounds, 8 ounces near China Camp.

Skin Diver To Receive Honors

Don Joslin will be awarded the diver of the year trophy when the Marin Skin Divers Club holds its annual trophy dinner tomorrow night at Bob's of Marin restaurant in Corte Madera.

Underwater photography winners to be feted are Tom Hall, best black and white and best color with natural light; Jim Craddock, best color non reflex and best reflex with flash, and Marion Giddings, best 8 millimeter color movie.

Trophy winners for fish are John Bedic, largest abalone; Al Giddings, largest fish free diving and largest fish taken with Scuba. Central California diving team trophies will be awarded to Gary Williams, Giddings and Joe Machado.

Meadow Club's Aces Tourney

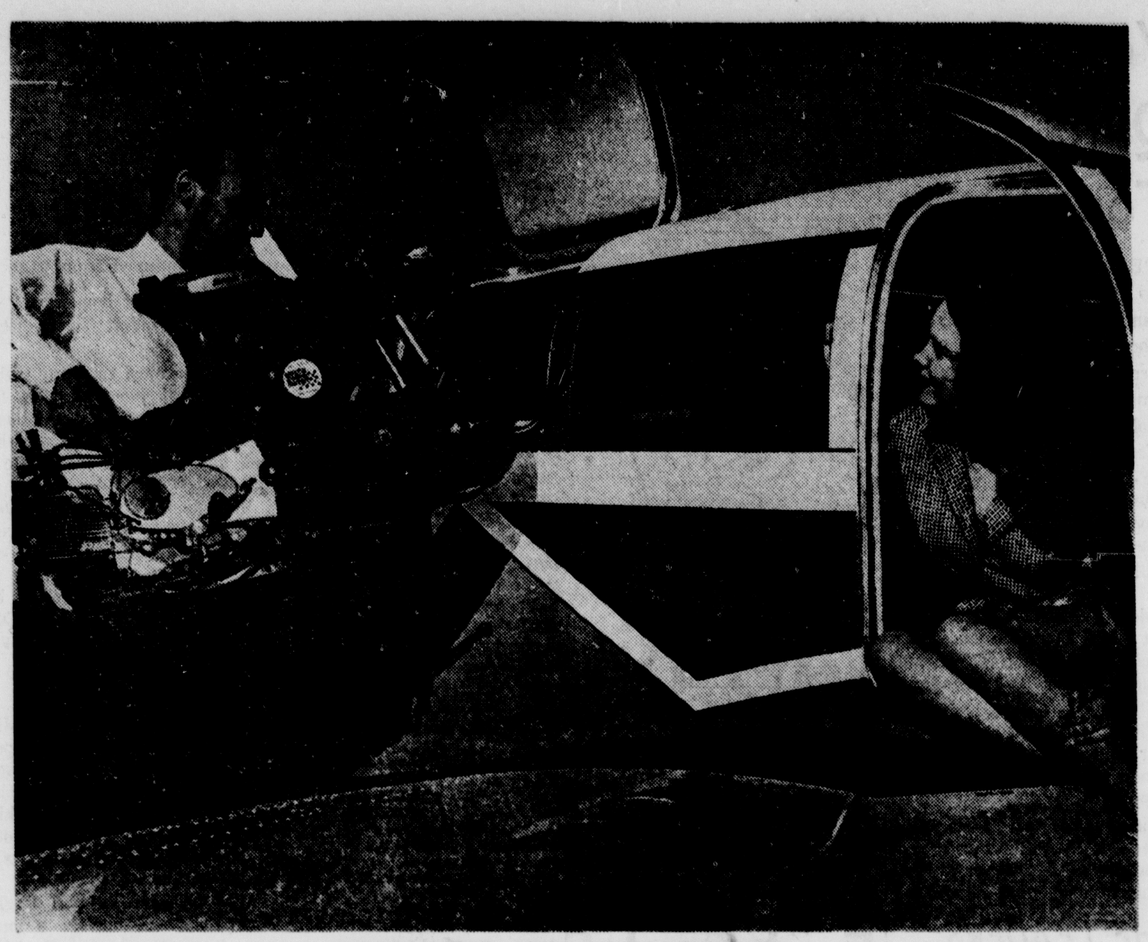

Mrs. William Milliken, with a 103-29—74, was the Ace of Ace tourney winner yesterday at the Meadows Club. Other winners were:

Class A—Mrs. Gordon Wood, 93-18—75; Mrs. John Lesoine, 93-17—76; Mrs. Harry Hensler, 94-14—80.

Low Putts—Mrs. Paul McArdle, 30.

WINGS 'N' WHEELS

Peter Adams of San Rafael travels in style—wings to get to his destination, and wheels to use once he gets there. Here the owner of Honda of Marin stows his especially modified Honda 50 aboard his single engine Mooney airplane for transportation at the end of his air trip. His interested passenger is Judy Groves of Novato.

PREP GRID CLINIC TOMORROW

Attracting coaches from all over Northern California, the 11th annual Redwood Footbal Clinic will run throughout tomorrow at Redwood High School in Larkspur.

Directed by Redwood athletic director and head grid coach Bob Troppmann, it is the largest such clinic in the state. It will start at 8:45 a.m. and won't be over until 5:30 p.m.

The clinic is being dedicated to the memory of Joe Verducci, the well known football coach at San Francisco State who died last year. A coach of the year, selected by the coaches themselves, will be named, as well as classification award winning schools, based on enrollment.

Among the featured speakers will be Marin's own Bob Franceschini, coach of the Drake High School grid team that won the Marin Athletic League title last year and tied for the honors the previous year.

Other speakers include Paul Briggs of Bakersfield High, 1965 South Shrine coach; North Shrine coaches George Davis of St. Helena and Collie Kidwell of Mountain View; Al Lubamersky of Washington High, San Francisco; Ray De Jong of South San Francisco; George Galli of Pittsburg, and Bill Gott of Stagg in Stockton.

Seniors-Faculty Basketball Tilt

San Rafael High School's Seniors - Faculty basketball game will be played at the school gym tonight, 8 o'clock, with the teachers trying to snap a three-year losing streak in the annual rivalry.

The teachers will be led by former college cage stars Mike Diaz(Bill Monti, Milt Hain and Angele Colombo, but the seniors will counter with plenty of talent of their own, led by All-Marin Athletic League cagers Ken Erdman and Terry Overlid.

Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

Jockeys Fined For Fisticuffs

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Santa Anita stewards listened Wednesday to jockeys Manuel Ycaza and William Harmatz explain how they got into a locker room fistfight. They then fined each $100.

The fight followed last Saturday's $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap, in which neither rode a winner.

Harmatz rode the race's long shot, Doc Jocoy, and didn't finish. Ycaza, mounted on heavily favored Gun Bow, came in fourth. Hill Rise won the race.

IT ADDS UP TO 461—Katie Mueller, who's been studying the new math for three years, sits before four large stones, six medium-sized ones and a small stone that can represent 461 when computed to the "base" seven. (AP Wirephoto)

This Final Lesson Teaches Reader A Thing Or Three

EDITOR'S NOTE — Well, as you thought when you flunked that math exam: 5 plus 5 isn't necessarily 10. Read on in the following last of five articles on the "new math" and you'll see why. Katie Mueller has been dealing with the new math for the last three years in her school and explains the working of the new system.)

Written for Associated Press

Did you know that 14 plus 14 equals 31?

It's true, although not in the number system we use. It adds up to 28, of course, in our system "to the base 10." But if we use a base of 7, the sum of 14 plus 14 would be 31.

I'll explain that in a minute, but first let's have some background.

When we write the number 132, what we mean is 1 times 100, plus 3 times 10, plus 2 times 1. Similarly, 17 is actually 1 times 10, plus 7 times 1.

Most people, of course, never think this out when they write down a number. Mathematicians realized this, and developed the theory of "bases" to better explain place values.

As you know, we count in groups of 10 — we have a "base" of 10.

Why this is, we don't know for certain.

But we can visualize a shepherd of ancient times, counting his sheep on his fingers. Each time a sheep went by, he would place a small stone on the ground to mark its passage.

But this became a bother, there were too many sheep. So, whenever he had 10 small stones — the same number as he had fingers—he would use a larger stone. Then, when he had 10 of these stones, he would use an even larger stone to signify 10 groups of 10 each, or 100.

He might have had something that looked like this:

"O" "O"
O O O
x x x x x x x x x

This would have meant he had 239 sheep — 2 groups of 100, 3 groups of 10, and 9 singles.

But supposing this shepherd had only seven fingers? Then what would he have done?

The same thing. The small stone would still represent one sheep. But now each medium-sized stone would represent a group of 7 sheep, and each large stone would represent a group of 49 sheep — 7 groups of 7 each.

And our seven-fingered shepherd might have had something that looked like this:

"O" "O" "O" "O"
O O O O O O
x

This represents 4 groups of 49, 6 groups of 7, and 1 single.

This would be described today as "461 to the base 7," or just the numeral 461 with a small figure 7 to the right and below the figure 1.

The important thing to remember is that whether we say 239 to the base 10, or 461 to the base 7, we are talking about the same number of sheep.

Of course, we can use other numbers as a base in addition to 10 and 7. A shepherd with only five fingers, for instance would count the same number of sheep and end up with 1,424 to the base 5.

Incidentally, these figures are read as four six one to the base seven, and two three nine to the base 10 — not four hundred sixty one, or two hundred thirty nine.

Now that this is all crystal clear, let's go back to that business of 14 plus 14 equals 31, when figured in the base 7.

First, let's write it down as a simple problem in addition, like this: 14 plus 14 equals 31.

When you add 4 and 4, the answer can't be 8, because there is no 8 in the base seven. Just as any number over 9 8s "carried over" in the base 10, so is any number over 6 carried over in the base 7.

Think of it this way: In our system of the base 10, if you add 6 and 5 you are 1 over 10, so you put down 1 and "carry" 1. In the base 7, when you add 4 and 4 you are 1 over 7, so you put down 1 and "carry" 1.

Try it. You put down 1 and carry 1, and there you have it — 14 plus 14 equals 31.

These bases are used only to help students get a better understanding of the place values of numbers. Teachers usually spend only a few weeks on it.

From now on, if anyone tells you that you're so dumb you don't even know what 2 and 2 is, you can tell them, "two plus 2 is 100 in the base 2, 11 in the base 3, 10 in the base 4, and 4 in the bases 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10."

That'll teach 'em a thing or three!

Improvement Group Elects Officers

LeRoy Stigner was elected Wednesday as president of the Marin City Improvement Assn., succeeding Mrs. Henry Coyle.

Also elected were Leon Turner, first vice president; Mose Beard, second vice president; Mrs. Louise Page, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary Freeman corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Beatric Benson, historian. Willie C. Hall was re-elected treasurer. Last year's officers will remain on the executive board for one year.

Youth Council Study Planned

The Marin Youth Council decided Wednesday to have subcommittee chairmen study the more than 1,500 responses to its survey on youth activities.

The committee received the responses from students and from about 85 churches, schools, recreation districts and service organizations.

Ralph D. Giovanniello, council co-chairman, said the subcommittee chairmen are to report their findings at the April 7 committee meeting at the Civic Center.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Parties To Precede Guild Ball

By MOLLY MARIN

Mr. and Mrs. William Munson and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marston will co-host at the Munson home Mr. and Mrs. Bjorne Qvale, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Schneider of Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Munson, Mr. and Mrs. William Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Munson, Mr. and Mrs. Erik Tryde and Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Bettel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horvath of Ceremenho Court will entertain the Terra Linda Party Guild and their guests at a cocktail party.

A large party planning to meet at the club prior to dinner will include Messrs. and Mesdames David Corstorphine, J. D. Carter, Donald Lingruen of Tiburon, J.G.L. Montgomery, Dr. and Mrs. Blaine Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Fernand Domergue, Col. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. William Sievers and Mr. and Mrs. John Bateson.

THE ROBERT Pritchards of Lucas Valley will entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cambridge and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Kerns, while Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thomsen of Galleon Way will entertain the Peter Becks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brownne have invited the Burton Bergstroms, Richard D. Ortens and James Kretchmers to join them at the Orange Blossom Lane home before the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lauer of Hickory Lane will entertain the Henry Coles, Ralph Woodworths, Mrs. Dorothy Laborree and Fred Redeye.

MRS. ROBERT C. Ferguson, chairman of the dance, and her husband will gather at the club with the William Zimmermans, J. B. Johns, Arthur Ladows, Robert Vannuccis, James Rays, E. F. Sthymmels, C. D. Matlocks of San Jose and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Schalich.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Brokaw have invited Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Simonitch, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Little and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Shooter.

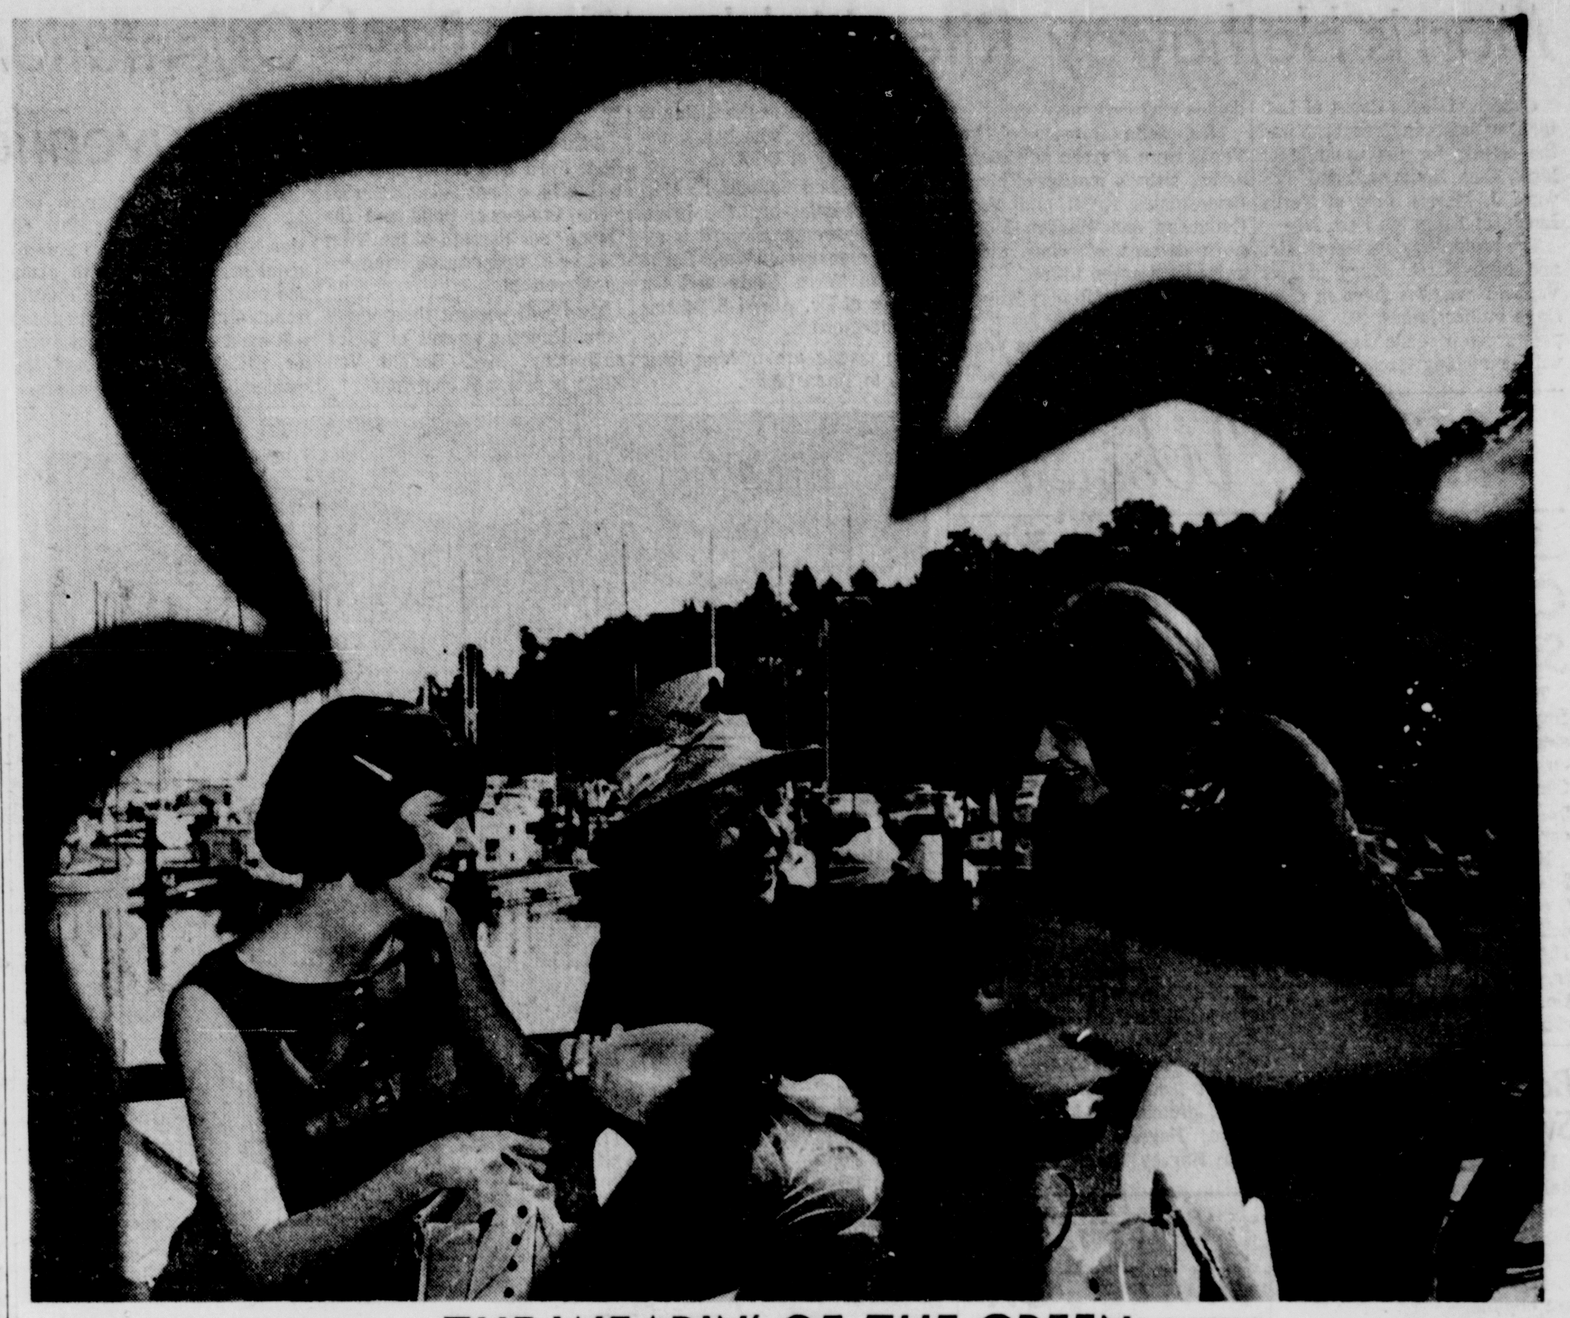

THE EVAN GOLDENBERGS have returned to their home in Ross after a three weeks trip that took them to New York for a week and then on to Mexico City for three days. Next they visited Acapulco for six days and then went on to a favorite spot of Californians, Puerto Vallarta, for a few days before returning home to Marin.

MRS. ETHAN PAPINEAU of Novato and her daughter, Nancy, are leaving Marin to join Mr. Papineau to live in Sherman Oaks near Los Angeles. Mrs. Papineau is a past president of the Novato Society of Advanced Art. A studio premiere and exhibition of oil paintings honoring her was held at the Nevin Kempthorne studio in Novato.

NEWCOMERS to Tiburon are the Thomas Dales and their three children. The family formerly lived in Marinwood.

A DRIVE through the Sonoma Valley to see the spring blossoms with luncheon in Sonoma made an enjoyable day for Mesdames Sydney Rhodes, De Witt Clark, Edward Mitchell and F. J. Connelly of Mill Valley and William Donaldson of Belvedere on Tuesday.

A SILVER TREE with white birds decorated the Novato home of the Carlo Canzianis at their champagne cocktail party honoring her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dahlquist of Loma Verde, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday evening. A two-tiered wedding cake decorated the buffet table for the guests, who were Mrs. Walter Arndt, who helped with the party, and Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Swanson, and Robert Hawkins of Novato; Edward Brown and Harold Swarthout of Mill Valley; Robert Tingle, Ralph Holtgrave, E. J. Lambretti, Jack Strauss, George Goodrich Jr., Glen Douglas, Joseph Ferretti, all of San Rafael; Clem Smith of Sonoma and William Mason of Livermore. Another daughter, Pamela Dahlquist of Loma Verde, also attended.

THE WEARIN' OF THE GREEN

Shamrocks will decorate Belvedere's San Francisco Yacht Club on March 13 when the club stages a St. Patrick's Day Dinner Dance. Working on decorations for the yacht club event are, from left, Mesdames Allen B. Mitchell, Melvin B. Tyler and Richard W. Owen. Highlight of the evening will be a waltz and twist contest. The Women's Auxiliary of the club has also planned a St. Patrick's Day Irish Smorgasbord on March 17 with a day of sports and games. Chairman for the Auxiliary lunch is Mrs. John Moore assisted by Mesdames Robert Barth, William Healy, Gary Gast and Howard Allen.

ON A CALM, sunny day Peggy Pomeroy paused to look at the view of San Francisco's Marina from the port side of the "Nereus" which is berthed in the harbor there. The Pomeroys are living aboard since they returned early from their around-the-world cruise and their Sausalito home is leased by the Consul General of New Zealand. The yacht was once filled with water from 25-foot seas crashing over her flying bridge.

ABOARD 'NEREUS'

Pursuing Archeology Interest

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

After living aboard the "Nereus" a month at Seychelles Island, Peggy Pomeroy took off alone on an African safari. Because of her interest in archeology she wanted to see Abu Simbel, which was soon to be covered by the waters of the Nile backed up by the Aswan Dam.

First she visited Zansibar. Then she went on to Tanganyika and Kenya, driving through these countries for a week and five days and shooting no animals except with her camera until she reached Nairobi.

Flying from there to Wadihalfa, where the waters of the Blue and White Nile come together, she got on a cement barge and floated down the river to her goal—Abu Simbel. Fascinated with these monuments of an ancient civilization, she took the train to see more at Luxor, Thebes and the Valley of the Kings.

Peggy ended her solitary trek by flying to Cairo and then on to Beirut, where Bill had brought the "Nereus."

Apparently fragile, this youthful looking and attractive woman, who speaks with just a hint of a Southern accent, must in reality have a constitution of iron.

"It's just a matter of being willing and able to live each day as it comes," she insists. "Even storms must be endured. You carry on your daily life as you would at home.

"We dressed for dinner every night," she reported, "not to be fancy but because we feel there is nothing better for your morale than a hot shower and change of clothes.

"AS FOR FOODS, we always ate those common to the countries we visited, and, I may add, we never got sick even though we ate such exotic things as snails, snake, flying bat, a shell fish callek Tek Tek, a delicious deepfish, Espota, that lives so far down

Morris-Hathaway Rites Held

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Greenbrae was the setting for the wedding of Mrs. Toni Hathaway and Edward J. Morris, both of Terra Linda, at 1 p.m. on Feb. 27.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Jolley of Las Vegas, Nev., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a pale green brocade sheath dress with matching jacket for the double ring ceremony.

Best man was Robert Whisenhunt of Novato.

The bride attended Las Vegas High School and Brigham Young University. She is the sister of Gardner Jolley, who is a senior at University of Utah.

Dr. and Mrs. Manuel E. Morris of Chicago are the bridegroom's parents. Edward is assistant manager of Wells Fargo Bank in Terra Linda and the brother of Dr. Alfred S. Morris of Chicago.

The couple are making their home in Terra Linda.

Dance Panel Set March 16

Dancers Carolyn Goldsmith, Dick Ford and Nancy Dunham will give a panel discussion on "The Pre-school Child and the Dance" for parents of the Twin Cities Cooperative Nursery on March 16.

They will present their views from different schools of dance philosophy. Mrs. Donald Van Etten is program chairman.

Orientation Set At Juvenile Hall

An orientation program will be held at Juvenile Hall on March 17 from 1:15 to 3 p.m. to acquaint the public with plans and programming of the Family Rehabilitation Center. The group will meet the new clinical director, Miss Eve Citrin, and the residential treatment workers.

The group will also tour Juvenile Hall. Speakers for the afternoon will be Judge Samuel Gardiner, superior court judge and judge of the juvenile court; David Fogel, director of institutions; and Mrs. Margaret Hedden, Juvenile Court Auxiliary. Plans for the Rehabilitation Center will be on view.

Marin Women

Club Plans Salad Lunch

The Corte Madera Women's Improvement Club will have a salad luncheon and card party on Tuesday at the Recreation Center. Social hour at noon will be followed by luncheon and cards.

Ballet Aquacade Swimming Tryouts

Final swim tryouts for the Ballet Aquacade to be held in June will be held tomorrow at Sir Francis Drake High School from 2 to 4 p.m. Eighth grade through high school age girls are eligible.

Fine Pickle

Make pickle pinwheels ahead of time for holiday entertaining. Spread equal amounts of ¼ cup of process cheddar cheese spread on each of 3 slices of boiled ham about ⅛ inch thick. Place one dill pickle on cheese and roll up like jelly-roll. Slice about ¼ inch thick, and serve with cocktail picks. Refrigerate, covered, until serving time. Makes about 2 dozen.

Tamalpais Temple Installs Officers

Mrs. Robert Cole has been installed most excellent chief of Tamalpais Temple 129, Pythian Sisters. Mrs. Herbert Hickman, recently installed as grand chief of the State of California, was installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Anthony Bottini as grand senior and Mrs. Florence Marsh as grand manager.

Other officers serving with Mrs. Cole are Mesdames Harold Marple, excellent senior; Charles Heller, excellent junior; Russell Stahl, manager; Joe Whitely, secretary; Harry Simpson, treasurer; Leonard Tibbetts, protector; Lloyd Brooks, guard; Hogart Thomas, musician; Harvey Murch, past chief.

BPW Officer Will Attend Conference

Mrs. Lee Miller, first vice president of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County, will leave for Sacramento to attend the annual "Government in Action Conference" on the weekend.

"Today the BPW 170,000 members can point with pride to list of legislation changes that benefit both men and women, and that can be directly attributed to BPW efforts," Mrs. Miller said. For instance, the equal rights amendment, was passed to BPW clubs all over the country for study, by convention action in Chicago in 1933; in 1937 the National Convention Assembly in Atlantic City voted unanimously to support the amendment. It took until June 1964 for it to become a law, but the important thing is we never gave up."

Representatives from the 12 districts in the state federation will design the federation's action, policy and study platforms, that will be presented to the convention body in May for ratification.

Mrs. Dorothy M. Ford, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, will attend and officially open National Business Women's Week with its "Springtime Salute to the Working Woman."

On Monday the California Federation will host a luncheon for all California legislators at the Hotel Senator.

'Mums In Marin Theme Of Novato Club Program

"Let's Grow Mums In Marin" will be the theme of the Novato Garden Club on Tuesday at the Novato Community House.

Lt. Col. (ret.) Vesper Corlett of Novato will be speaker and show slides of flowers grown in Marin as well as arrangements which have won blue ribbons. He will also give a demonstration on chrysanthemum cuttings.

A dessert luncheon at noon will be followed by a business meeting and program. Election of officers will be held.

Hostesses are Mesdames John Sloat, George Lester, Sam Marzell, Andrew Mc Laughlin, Ray Muir and Ethel Murphy.

Sen. John F. McCarthy has made arrangements for 37 garden club members to have lunch at Hotel Senator followed by a tour of the Capitol Building and the camellia filled grounds in the area. The bus trip, arranged by Mrs. A. P. Garatti, will be made on Thursday.

Moose Dance Set

The Novato Moose Lodge will hold a western dance at its hall at 9 p.m. tomorrow. Music will be provided by the Western Wranglers.

Linda Smith Will Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Smith of Mill Valley have announced engagement of their daughter, Linda Louise Smith, to John M. Higgins of Conway, N.H.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Higgins of Conway.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and attended the College of Marin. She is the sister of Sandy and Edwin Smith of Mill Valley.

The future bridegroom is a graduate of Boston University and is employed with the California Packing Corp. in San Francisco.

Tam Senior To Participate In Show For Scholarship

Tamalpais High School senior Jacklyn McCarty will be one of the five girls sponsored by Emporium stores who will present a fashion show tomorrow to qualify for a scholarship.

Seventeen-year-old Jackie is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth McCarty of Mill Valley.

Sixty-seven girls from all over the United States are competing for 12 scholarships ranging from $500 to $5,000 offered to high school senior girls by the Bobbie Brooks Inc. Co. which manufactures a teen-age line of clothing.

The scholarships are to be used for study in fashion merchandising or design.

Sponsored by the Marin store, Jackie must present 15 minutes of Saturday's show entitled "Five Variations on a Given Theme." It will take place at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium on the sixth floor annex of the store in San Francisco and is open to the public.

Each girl must select her theme, choose her mannequins, select their outfits and accessories and write and present the commentary.

Jackie has chosen as her theme, "The Young Livelies."

Her mannequins will be members of the Marin store's fashion high board. They are Jill Martin of Tamalpais High School, Linda Horick of Tomales Bay Union High School, Christine Dettner of Dominican Upper School, Trish Gallivan of San Rafael High School and Diane Sheiboch of Novato High School.

'NEREUS'

that its eyes pot out when it is brough to the surface, the huge sea cocoanuts at Seychelles and those spiny urchins.

"Incidentally fish was the most costly staple food we bought all over the world. Either it is given to you free or it is fantastically expensive. I think the seas are being fished out.

"Bill and I did all our own marketing because we found it the best way to meet and learn about people.

"By the way," Peggy explained, "I am a tremendous believer in keeping a full stomach to avoid seasickness. Not too much, of course, but we had four full meals a day—breakfast, lunch, dinner and night watch lunch. You don't get seasick if you do this. At least our family didn't."

SURPRISINGLY INCLUDED in the daily routine were dusting and doing laundry.

"Why, even in the middle of the ocean," she commented, "we had to dust twice a day, and I had two full loads of laundry every day. I could write a thousand million ads for that electric washer—it never failed!"

Nor did the "Nereus" lack pets to contribute to a homelike atmosphere.

"When our little dog Steki—a type of Japanese miniature dog so small he fitted into Bill's shoe—died, we were so heart broken we bought seven chickens with beautiful feathers on the Portuguese Island of Madeira. We kept them in a coop on the sun deck, and they became delightful pets, but you don't fall in love with chickens. I had a parrot too that learned to swim."

THOUGH PEGGY RETURNED with many interesting art objects, one of her most interesting and unusual collections is composed of straw hats and baskets from all over the world.

"Each country and each island expresses itself differently in hats and baskets," she explained. "They are the simplest form of artistic expression of all natives. They tell you a great deal about the people."

One of her prize ones is a large cartwheel from St. Bartholomy in the Caribbean, where the Pomeroys visited Peggy and David Rockerfeller who have a home there.

Despite her busy life Peggy Pomeroy found time to write some poems, of which seven were printed in the Independent-Journal while she was gone.

HER BUSY LIFE continues on the "Nereus" in San Francisco, but she is eagerly looking forward to leaving for Seychelles and building their new home.

On March 17 the Pomeroys will show their colored slides taken on the voyage at 8 p.m. in Campbell Hall, Sausalito. The program, "580 Lazy Days Around the World aboard the 'Nereus' " is being sponsored by St. Brigid's Guild of Christ Church as a benefit for the church fund.

ON THE SUN DECK of the "Nereus," Peggy Pomeroy shows some of her collection of straw hats from all over the world. She is wearing one from Guadaloupe in the Caribbean, and she holds one with a band inscribed "Tinos," the name of the Greek Island where it was made. Near this spot on the deck the coop was kept which housed the seven chickens they bought for pets on the Portuguese Island of Madeira.

Darleen Klapperich Bride Of Gary Walsh

Darleen Klapperich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klapperich of San Rafael, became the bride of Gary Walsh of San Anselmo at noon on Feb. 27 at St. Raphael's Catholic Church in San Rafael.

Maureen Klapperich of San Anselmo wore a full length empire dress of dust pink crepe as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids Mrs. Michael Klapperich of Novato, Mrs. Donald Rickets of Kentfield, Joyce McGurk of Los Angeles and Janet May of San Rafael were similarly dressed.

Russell Walsh of Bolinas acted as his brother's best man and Robert McClure, Robert Candrian, Paul Dell-Santina and Richard Gaither, all of San Anselmo, ushered.

John and William Klapperich, brothers of the bride, were altar boys.

Darleen, who was graduated from Marin Catholic High School, is a teller at Wells Fargo Bank in San Rafael. The bridegroom was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed with Linscott Plumbing Inc. in San Rafael.

Following a reception at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael, the couple left for a wedding trip to Los Vegas and Los Angeles. They are making their home in San Anselmo.

For Marin, the world's fastest reporting

We tied up the globe in the I-J's new electronic tape to show there's something new in the world of news reporting in your daily I-J.

For that tape "speaks" a new electronic language which we take directly from the Associated Press sports wire, rather than news in the form of teletyped copy.

We feed this tape into a battery of new Elektron linotypes which "read" the little perforations and change impulses into words, set in metal. All at speeds Buck Rogers never dreamed of.

Result: MORE NEWS in less time and LATER NEWS . . . giving you a sports section with more depth and complete world coverage.

These electronic speed demons also enable us to bring you the closing prices of our New York Stock List TODAY, instead of tomorrow. And to print the entire weekly range of ALL New York stocks in our Saturday edition.

Just another way of advancing the I-J to further your reading enjoyment.

County Wide

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Mill Valley

Little Acorn

it may have been — but it surely grew into a mighty oak. One big enough to shelter the whole concrete patio of this hillside home. The living room has distant views of green hills and a Swedish fireplace for cool evenings — the kitchen is the informal family-type with plenty of room for feeding a group. Each of the bedrooms is large and the bath is really huge and fully tiled — even the separate shower stall. The patio and oak alone are worth the tiny price of $23,250 — so come see the house we are throwing into the bargain.

When a Family Buys A Home in Northern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of almost 5 to 1 MORE than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Custom-Tailored For A Big Family

Almost never is there a brand-new house available in Ross—surely never has there been one that offers so much in such a superb location. It's a rambling brown shingle on a wooded acre-and-a-third, just around the corner from everything. It has 5 bedrooms and 5 baths, a large separate dining room, a big kitchen opening onto a family room. The living room is huge, with an extra-high cathedral ceiling and a hidden bar. It has a maid's room and bath, and a 3-car garage. It's beautifully arranged for easy outdoor living. It can be yours for $140,000. Come see it Saturday from 11 to 4 or Sunday from 11 to 5, when Aline LeBas will be happy to show you through. Take Shady Lane to Ames to Upper Ames, where it's the first driveway on the right.

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

WE NEED ANOTHER CHARLIE!!

It's lonesome here on the ranch without Charlie our burro. We need anoher, and will gladly trade "way-out" to get one. The salesmen have nothing to ride, and Chief Cowpoke George Dexter is riding the salesmen. So if you have anything, even a St. Bernard, or anything else to trade, come and see us! We're READY!

FOR EXAMPLE:

'64 Chev Impala H.T. Cpe
Fire engine red, completely equipped.
✔ $2299 ✔

'62 Jeep Universal Sharp
4-wheel drive. Warne hubs, custom cab, new paint. A real hill leveler (even Wolfe Grade at 8:15 a.m.)

'65 Mustang Cpe Low Mileage

'64 Pontiac Catalina Loaded
Hardtop coupe. Real luxury for the budget minded. 2 to choose from at $399 down and $75 per mo.

'63 Buick Estate Wagon Huge!
Just the car for the prestige rancho.

'61 Ford Galx Conv V-8 Stick
A real sunshine car for checking the fences (and girls, too!)

'63 Comet 2-Door H.T. 6 cyl auto.
A real economical car for your wife (girl friend, graduate, etc.)

'63 Volkswagen Sed 30 plus MPG

'58 Olds Hardtop $599

150 OTHER REAL SHARP
CARS TO CHOOSE FROM

P.S. Charlie was rustled by a couple of bandits from Car Town, our lot in Novato.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Thursday, March 18, 1965, at 10:15 o'clock A.M., at the main south front entrance to the Marin County Court House, in San Rafael, Marin County, California, the undersigned, DRAKE FINANCING, INC., a California corporation, as Trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, the real property situated in the City of Sausalito, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

EXCEPTING THEREFROM AND THEREOUT that portion deeded to the State of California, by deed recorded April 13, 1953 in Liber 800 of Official Records, at page 6, Marin County records, more particularly described as follows:

COMMENCING at the most Southerly corner of that certain easement conveyed to the State of California by deed recorded June 26, 1937 in Book 341 of Official Records, at page 345, being on the Northerly line of Prospect Avenue, as said avenue is shown on said map; thence along the Southeasterly line of said Easement, North 47° 00' 00" East 25 feet, more or less, to a point distant North 41° 59' 24" East 51.61 feet from Engineer's Station 126+30.77 on the "D3L" line of the Department of Public Works' Survey for the State Freeway in Marin County between Waldo and the Golden Gate Bridge, Road Iv-Mrn-1-Saus, said point also being on a line which bears North 31° 52' 29" West and passes through corordinate Y = 496,820.00 feet and X = 1,426.96 feet; thence along last said line North 31° 52' 29" West 88 feet, more or less to the Easterly line of said Prospect Avenue; thence along said Easterly line and said Northerly line in a Southerly and easterly direction, 83 feet, more or less, and 25 feet, more or less, respectively to the point of commencement.

ALSO EXCEPTING: The underlying fee interest appurtenant to the above described parcel lying within Prospect Avenue, as conveyed to the State of California, by deed referred to above.

Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances to satisfy the obligation secured by, and pursuant to the power of sale contained in, that certain Deed of Trust, executed by CHARLES LUNSFORD and JUSTINE LUNSFORD, his wife, as Joint Tenants, as Trustors, to DRAKE FINANCING, INC., a California corporation, as Trustee, for the benefit and security of ROSS VALLEY SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a California corporation, as Beneficiary, dated June 26, 1962, and recorded on June 29, 1962, in Book 1585, at page 449, of the Official Records, in the Office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT and election to sell the described real property under the hereinabove-described Deed of Trust was recorded on November 16, 1964, in Book 1882, at page 547, of the Official Records, in the Office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL SERVICES
OFFICE OF ARCHITECTURE AND CONSTRUCTION
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Office of Architecture and Construction, Room 1228, 1120 "N" Street, Sacramento, California; until 2:00 P.M. Tuesday, April 13, 1965, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in Hearing Room in Basement at said address, for the REPLACEMENT OF BOILERS AND ELECTRICAL SERVICE MODIFICATIONS FOR INMATE ACTIVITY BUILDING, DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS, CALIFORNIA STATE PRISON, SAN QUENTIN, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, (W.O. AB06 018 C and W.O. AB06 021 C-11), in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and such addenda thereto as may be issued prior to bid opening date.

In general this project comprises removing existing boilers, fan, steel stack and breechings, and replacing them with new boiler complete with facilities, new fan, steel stacks, air receiver, compressor, blowoff tank, other related equipment and appurtenances, and furnishing and installing new electrical unit substation and making electrical service modifications. Included is the construction of an approximately 1,600 square feet, two-story, steel frame and reinforced brick building addition to the existing Boiler House, and related alteration work to the existing building and facilities.

Bids will be entertained on a lump sum basis only.

Plans and specifications, forms of proposal and Bidder's Bond may be obtained by requesting them in writing from the Office of Architecture and Construction, P.O. Box 1079, Sacramento, and they may be seen at the Office of Architecture and Construction, 1120 "N" Street, Sacramento, and 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland, and the Builders' Exchange Offices.

A deposit for plans and specifications will not be required.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a standard proposal form furnished by the Office of Architecture and Construction and is made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1B of the Specifications. Each bidder must be licensed and also prequalified when required. (See said Section 1B.)

The Department of General Services reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid received.

Apprentices: Pursuant to Section 1777.5 and 1777.6 of the Labor Code and in accordance with regulations of the California Apprenticeship Council, (See Title 8, California Administrative Code, Sections 18000 et seq.) and local apprenticeship standards for the trade, properly indentured apprentices may be employed in the prosecution of the work.

Information relative to apprenticeship standards, wage schedules, and other requirements may be obtained from the Director of Industrial Relations, ex officio the Administrator of Apprenticeship, State Building Annex, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, or from the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and its branch offices.

It is State policy to encourage the employment and training of apprentices on public works contracts as may be permitted under local apprenticeship standards.

Prevailing Wage Rates: Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code, the Department of General Services has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and employer payments for health and welfare, vacation, pension and similar purposes in the County in which the work is to be done to be as hereinafter set forth in this notice.

Copies of all collective bargaining agreements relating to the work to be performed as set forth in the aforementioned Labor Code containing information relating to wages, fringe benefits, subsistence, and travel pay are on file and are available for inspection in the offices of the Division of Labor Statistics and Research of the Department of Industrial Relations.

Employer payments other than those hereinafter itemized, as defined in Section 1773.1 of the Labor Code, are to be paid in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the type or classification of the workmen or mechanics employed on the project.

The following shall govern as to overtime and Sunday or Holiday work: overtime work—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments; Sunday and Holiday work—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workmen employed on the project.

MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 2 p.m., March 22, 1965, for:

The installation of traffic and pedestrian signals on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at College, Bon Air, LaCuesta, and Eliseo Drive.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) percent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposals shall be filed with George H. Gnoss, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read at 2 p.m., in Room 413, Marin County Civic Center, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will award the bid at 1:30 p.m., March 23, 1965, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Office of Architecture and Construction, Room 1228 1120 "N" Street, Sacramento, California; until 2:00 P.M., Tuesday, March 30, 1965, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in Hearing Room in Basement at said address, for the construction of the INMATE ACTIVITY BUILDING, DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS, CALIFORNIA STATE PRISON, SAN QUENTIN, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, (W.O. AB06 021 C), in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and such addenda thereto as may be issued prior to bid opening date.

In general, this project comprises the construction of a steel and concrete gymnasium building approximating 30,000 square feet gross floor area.

Construction includes grading and paving, fencing and other groundwork; regular and prestressed precast concrete; concrete block masonry; ribbed steel decking; aluminum and steel railing, wire and flattened expanded mesh work; carpentry, millwork and acoustical tile; hollow metal doors and pressed metal frames; lathing and plaster; roofing, sheet metal; ceramic tile; folding fabric partition; gymnasium equipment; painting; mechanical and electrical work, and other work as indicated.

Separate bids will be entertained on a lump sum basis for each of the following segregated parts of the project. In addition, a combination bid will also be entertained for the Complete Work, comprising all of the work listed below.

1. General Work
2. Electrical Work
3. Heating Work
4. Plumbing Work
5. Combination of Plumbing Work and Heating Work

Plans and specifications, and forms of proposal and Bidder's bond may be obtained by requesting them in writing from the Office of Architecture and Construction, P.O. Box 1079, Sacramento, and they may be seen at the Office of Architecture and Construction, 1120 "N" Street, Sacramento, and 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland, and the Builders' Exchange Offices.

A deposit of $100.00 (check made payable to the Department of General Services) will be required to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within 30 days after bid opening. Failure to so return both the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the State.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a standard proposal form furnished by the Office of Architecture and Construction and is made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1B of the Specifications. Each bidder must be licensed and also prequalified when required. (See said Section 1B.)

The Department of General Services reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid received.

Apprentices: Pursuant to Section 1777.5 and 1777.6 of the Labor Code and in accordance with regulations of the California Apprenticeship Council, (See Title 8, California Administrative Code, Sections 18000 et seq.) and local apprenticeship standards for the trade, properly indentured apprentices may be employed in the prosecution of the work.

Information relative to apprenticeship standards, wage schedules, and other requirements may be obtained from the Director of Industrial Relations, ex officio the Administrator of Apprenticeship, State Building Annex, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, or from the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and its branch offices.

It is State policy to encourage the employment and training of apprentices on public works contracts as may be permitted under local apprenticeship standards.

Prevailing Wage Rates: Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code, the Department of General Services has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and employer payments for health and welfare, vacation, pension and similar purposes in the County in which the work is to be done to be as hereinafter set forth in this notice.

Copies of all collective bargaining agreements relating to the work to be performed as set forth in the aforementioned Labor Code containing information relating to wages, fringe benefits, subsistence, and travel pay are on file and are available for inspection in the offices of the Division of Labor Statistics and Research of the Department of Industrial Relations.

Employers payments other than those hereinafter itemized, as defined in Section 1773.1 of the Labor Code, are to be paid in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the type or classification of the workmen or mechanics employed on the project.

The following shall govern as to overtime and Sunday or Holiday work; overtime work — not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments; Sunday and Holiday work—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workmen employed on the project.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

New Vaccine Helping Those Suffering From Cold Sores

VAN DELLEN

Researchers at the Pasteur Institute have developed a vaccine against various forms of herpes. It has been successful in a small group of people and should bring a ray of hope to those so frequently annoyed with repeated attacks of herpes simplex (cold sores). These fragile blisters develop around the mouth and other body openings. They burn, itch, and are most unattractive when exuding a sticky serum or covered with crusts.

Herpes simplex is a viral disease that goes deeper than appears on the surface. The original infection takes place in childhood but only 15 per cent develop fever blisters during the attack. We know this because laboratory tests show that protective antibodies develop in the blood at an early age.

THESE ANTIBODIES are sufficient to protect some persons from recurrent attacks. In the majority, protection is minimal; the causative virus hibernates and comes to life when triggered by a cold, exposure to sunlight, injury, indigestion, menstruation, or emotional strain. Various foods may precipitate an attack. The causative virus usually remains in the same area, which explains why lesions recur on previously affected sites.

The success of this new vaccine is not entirely dependent upon its ability to increase the number of antibodies. The poorly understood herpes triggering factor is involved and there is a possibility it may account for some of the failures.

REPEATED SMALLPOX vaccinations also are used as a preventive. There is no logical reason why this works because the viruses causing these two disorders are unrelated.

Idoxuridine cream (5-IDU) has been under investigation as a possible remedy for herpetic lesions. The results have been disappointing, even though some physicians report early relief of soreness and itching. In the majority of cases, 5-IDU has no effect on the rate of healing and probably is no better than other remedies for this purpose.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

DAMP LUNGS

V. W. writes: What is meant by moisture of the lungs?

REPLY

In the strict sense, everyone has moisture in the lungs, which is easily demonstrated by blowing against a pane of glass. But the term often is used by physicians to denote excessive moisture or secretions. This disorder is found chiefly in dropsical conditions, heart failure, or inflammation of the lungs.

NAGGING SPOUSE

J. B. writes: I have a spastic bowel caused by living for 31 years with a wife who keeps me upset constantly. Have you any suggestions?

REPLY

CERVICAL POLYPS

Mrs. L. writes: Are polyps on the cervix likely to become malignant?

REPLY

They rarely become malignant but removal is recommended when they cause bleeding.

EATING DOES IT

T. D. writes: Is obesity due to disturbances of the glands?

REPLY

Yes, the salivary glands.

Permit Is Sought To Drive Pilings

Howard B. Allen of 83 Beach Road, Belvedere, has asked for a navigational permit from the Army Corps of Engineers to drive pilings in Richardson Bay for a house and deck on West Shore Road, Belvedere.

The corps will delay issuance of a permit in order to take any protest until Feb. 1. Persons wishing to protest on navigational grounds may send a letter in triplicate to the corps' office at 100 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

Christmas Seal Drive Now Totals $41,663

The 1964 Christmas Seals campaign total to date is $41,663.60, an increase of $3,838.73 over the same period last year, chairman E. Warren McGuire reported today.

"It is not too late to send contributions, and I would like to remind Marinites that their Christmas Seal donations finance the important work of the Marin Tuberculosis Assn.," McGuire said.

Schools Head Put On Leave

NEW YORK (AP) — The Board of Education has placed Dr. Calvin E. Gross on a three-month leave of absence with pay as the first move in a drive to force him out of his $45,000-a-year job as superintendent of city schools.

Gross has rejected a request for his resignation, made nine days ago. He called the request "shocking and unexpected" and said it was made "peremptorily."

One of the board's complaints against Gross is reported to be his failure to come up with a fresh school integration program based on recommendations made 10 months ago by State Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr.'s integration committee.

Mission San Rafael Archangel was the next to the last of 20 missions built in California. It was built in 1817 and restored in 1949.

11 Life Memberships Attained In CSF

Eleven seniors have attained the honor of life membership in the Terra Linda High School chapter of the California Scholarship Federation. On average it requires at least three A's and one B in academic subjects.

The students are: Deborah L. Adams, Kenneth R. Allen, Richard N. Atkins, Jean E. Barber, Howard B. Gamper Jr., Judith A. Harrop, Jan D. Hunsinger, Andrew W. Lafrenz, Linda S. McCollister, Nancy J. Purvis and Carrie K. Uratsu.

Incorporation Papers Signed By Arts Group

Novato Vice Mayor William Jack Adams, in the absence of Mayor Robert D. Carrow, officiated at signing of incorporation papers for the North Bay Artists Wednesday at the home of Verle Johnson at 30 Laurie Drive, Novato.

The association is sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Jean Arthur Back Again Tomorrow

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Television isn't all bad. It has helped acquaint a whole new generation with Jean Arthur through old movies. So it is something of an occasion that this lovely lady who charmed another generation with her happy - sad cracked voice, her combination of determination and vulnerability, will end her long absence from films Saturday with a guest role on CBS-TV's "Gunsmoke."

She will play an outlaw's worried mother, and I can't tell you whether the show is any good because I haven't seen it yet, but it really doesn't matter too much because Miss Arthur's admirers will always remember her as a touching comedienne. In other words, we just want to see her Saturday night, the way one wants to see an old flame who will never change in one's memory from the day we first saw her.

Everyone who had a crush on Miss Arthur remembers her in a favorite movie. For some it was "Mr. Deeds Goes To Town." For others it might have been "You Can't Take It With You."

For me, it was "A Foreign Affair," and the memory of her as a prim, businesslike congresswoman who, on a trip to grim post-World War II Europe, gets tipsy in a nightclub and winds up standing on a table, leading a crowd in the rousing singing of "We are from I-O-Way, I-O-Wayyyyy. . ."

Miss Arthur has been living very quietly up on the California coast, below San Francisco, away from the state's well-known sloburbs and in a breathtakingly beautiful area, and hasn't shown any inclination to return to film work until recent months. Then it was reported that Lucille Ball's "Lucy Show" had tried to tempt her with a script. But apparently that didn't work out.

The Channel Swim: There will be a one-hour feature about the late comedian Fred Allen on NBC-TV's "Today" program Monday, including readings of passages from a new book of his letters. . . Edward Albee is scheduled to discuss his play "Tiny Alice" on "Today" next Thursday. . . Barbra Streisand's first one - hour special for CBS-TV Airs April 28. . . it is called "My Name is Barbra". . . how precious.

24 Scholarship Semi-Finalists Announced

The California State Scholarship Commission has announced that 24 Sir Francis Drake High School seniors have reached semi-finalist status in competition for state scholarships.

The state-financed aid runs from $300 to $1,500.

Drake's semi-finalists are: Anna Anker, Stan Carter, Kathryn Corson, Jeff Cross, Steve Davis, Bill Davis, Laura Gavre, Linda Green, Janet Holmes, Jack Johnston, Christopher Johnstone, Chester Judag, Hans Kramer,

Scholarship winners will be announced next month.

Jazz Group To Perform

The Paul Winter Sextet, young Marin jazz group, will perform March 23 at 8 p.m. in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus, San Rafael.

The appearance is being sponsored by the Associated Students of Dominican College, with proceeds to go to the Dominican chapel building fund.

Winter organized the group while a student at Northwestern University. The sextet zoomed into prominence in jazz through a successful tour, under State Department auspices, of 25 countries in the Western Hemisphere.

Two Marinites Enlist In Navy

Recent recruits in the Navy are Harry M. Lane, son of Maj. and Mrs. Harry G. Lane of Westover Circle, Hamilton Air Force Base, and Gerald W. Prather, son of Mrs. Catherine O. Prather of 1300 Olive Street, Novato.

Lane, 20, enlisted as a seaman in the Navy's junior college graduate training program in the nuclear field. Prather, 17, joined the Navy's seaman training program.

The last of 30 performances will be staged on March 14. In all, nearly 6,000 people have seen the play.

MARIN FILM FARE

Lana Turner Picture Is On Hub's Screen

By LES DARD

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"Love Has Many Faces," is now showing.

Lana Turner plays a woman of beauty, wealth and mystery who is attended by her ex-beach boy husband, Cliff Robertson at Acapulco.

Conflict enters in the person of Hugh O'Brian, a total heel.

Ruth Roman has a strong role as an honest woman.

For adults.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Starting Sunday is "Sex and the Single Girl."

101 DRIVE-IN

A drama of personal hatred between two strong men plays through tomorrow night in "Behold a Pale Horse," starring Gregory Peck and Anthony Quinn.

Twenty years after the Spanish Civil War, antagonism still smolders between Peck, a loyalist hero exiled in Southern France, and Quinn, the Civil Guard captain who wants to smash the legend of the exiled fighter.

NOVATO THEATER

Christopher Plummer, Stephen Boyd, Sophia Loren, Alec Guinness and James Mason star in the Samuel Bronstein production of "The Fall of the Roman Empire," which opens on Sunday.

Emporer Marcus Aurelius dies before he can disinherit his son Commodus and appoint a young general to his position. Under the rule of Commodus, the father's good works are destroyed, the captured people revolt and the frontiers of Rome crumble.

The co-feature is "Where Has Love Gone," the story of a wealthy San Francisco family.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"The Pumpkin Easter" is held over, which stars Anne Bancroft as a troubled woman in search of her real self.

Peter Finch and James Mason share the top billing in this unusual entry.

Miss Bancroft plays a much-married British mother of 14 children, new wife of a well-to-do screen writer (Finch). Suddenly thrust into a life of leisure, she must come to terms with herself for the first time.

LARK THEATER

Held over is "Marriage — Italian Style," the sensitive story of a woman's long fight for respectability.

Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni star.

Fine adult entertainment.

RAFAEL THEATER

The much talked about new film, "Father Goose," starring Cary Grant and Leslie Caron is held over here.

Grant plays a World War II coastwatcher in the South Pacific.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Held over again is superlative "Becket," a story of 12th Century England.

The plot revolves around King Henry II (Peter O'Toole) and his problems with the church. He appoints his Saxon adviser and friend, Thomas Becket (Richard Burton) chancellor, then, later, to gain control of the church, archbisop of Canterbury.

The Motor Movies Drive-In will be closed again this weekend.

POPULAR THREESOME—Robert Goulet, Sandra Dee and Andy Williams join in the comedy, "I'd Rather Be Rich," now playing as companion feature to "Father Goose" at the Rafael Theater.

Fourth Play Saturday For Children

The fourth in a series of plays for children sponsored by Junior Theater of Marin will be "Toad of Toad Hall," a Castle Court Players production to be given March 13 at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the San Rafael High School auditorium.

Adapted from Kenneth Grahames' "The Wind in the Willows," the play is directed by Douglas M. Briggs of Novato, winner of a Children's Theater Foundation scholarship and a drama teacher at San Francisco State College. Briggs, founder of the Castle Court Players three years ago, has assembled his cast from graduate and current drama students at San Francisco State. Included are Don Currie, Larry Lehner, Fred Key, Richard Smith, Richard Peterson, Joe Whip, Sanne Vaughn and Connie Whip of San Francisco, and Frances Briggs of Novato.

The fifth and last play in the series will be "Magic in Bannerland," an original play by Peggy Bridgman of Belvedere, on April 24 also at the high school auditorium.

Reservations for the two plays may be made with ticket chairman, Mrs. C. van Vliet, 1620 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax. Tickets may be purchased at the door, if available. Mrs. Gerald DeVore, 74 Monterey Avenue, San Anselmo, is chairman of birthday reservations.

Fourth Street Subject Of Session

A meeting of the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce business development committee will focus the spotlight on Fourth Street at 7:30 p.m. on March 16.

Under discussion, said committee chairman Walter Zurcher, will be the street's traditional apathy among merchants and how to become more aggressive with cleaner stores, better selections and stronger promotions.

Garden Party Will Honor Mrs. Gatov

Mrs. Albert W. Gatov of Kent Woodlands, who resigned last month as Democratic national committeewoman, will be honored at a garden party on March 16 from 1 to 3:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ray C. Schultz in Mill Valley.

The Marin branch of the Democratic Women of the Bay Area is sponsoring the event, with Mrs. John McRee of Mill Valley as chairman.

Guests will include two Novato attorneys who will speak about their recent trip to Mississippi: Robert D. Carrow, mayor, and Joseph Forest.

Mrs. Sue Forest, co-chairman of the "Marin to Mississippi Family Propect," said each guest is asked to take an article of children's clothing to be sent to a Mississippi family that has been "adopted" by the project.

Committee To Meet

The security committee of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District will mee at 10:30 Thursday in the bridge administration building at the toll plaza.

Hong Kong Is Facing An Economic Crisis

By GEORGE BARKER

Over Chinese New Year, Hong Kong was a scene of mass hysteria. The whole thing started with a run on the Ming Tak Bank which was forced to close and continued with another run on the Canton Trust Bank 10 days later. It closed too and the onslaught began.

Everyone queued up for many hours at all banks, foreign and Chinese, hoping to withdraw their money. Most of the people were of the poorer laboring classes, and many queued up the previous night and slept and ate their meals in the street. It was a scene of chaos all over Hong Kong and Kowloon. With many banks and many branches in all parts of the colony, there was disorder and confusion practically everywhere.

Finally, the government announced that the banks were financially sound, but due to mass withdrawals there was a shortage of banknotes. It restricted withdrawals to H.K. $100, or U.S. $17.50 per person per day and flew in large amounts of Hong Kong dollars and English pounds from London. This seemed to settle the people.

However, a Chinese friend who is a crack stenographer for a British export company, wrote me, "I myself had all my spare cash in the Ming Tak and as the Ming Tak is now in the hands of the Official Receiver, it will be sometime before we know how much, if any, we will get back. I don't feel too sorry for myself after seeing the pitiful hawkers and labourers (many of them women) kneeling and weeping in front of the banks, begging to be given back their savings so that they would not have to endure hardship in their old age."

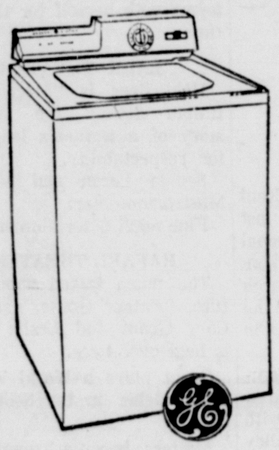

According to her, the banking crisis, although it lasted only a few days, has seriously affected every line of industry and commerce in Hong Kong; that manufacturers were the hardest hit as they relied on loans from the banks to carry on operations, and had to pay their staffs in cash every day. She says, "The experts say it will take several years before the economy can revert to its old free and easy ways."

There is no question that Hong Kong has had a lengthy, artificial boom. Speculators have jerry-built apartment houses and sold them for fantastic profits. Speculation in real estate is the colony's chief avocation. Double your money in two to five years, these bid dealers said. Now it appears that the economic facts of life are catching up with Hong Kong. After over-optimism comes pessimism.

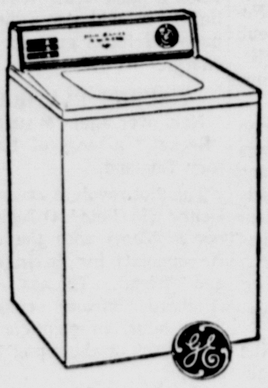

Hong Kong must export to live. In the past few years Red China has moved into Hong Kong's favorite outlet for her cheap manufactures, Southeast Asia, and is competing with her goods ever increasingly in the colony itself. This is bound eventually to lower the standard of living in Hong Kong closer to that of Red China.
